

It was then moved by Dr. MacVicar and seconded by Dr. Murdoch :
That a Committee be appointed to consider the question of the Administration of the Ordinances in connection with our churches, and report next year, and that the question be lifted from the table, and referred to this Committee. Carried.

The Committee appointed was : Rev. Dr. Murdoch, W. K. Anderson, Prof. McGregor, J. Dempsey, and Prof. Newman.

Upon motion the Home Missionary Society adjourned to make way for the Foreign Missionary Society.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention met at 2.15 this p.m.; President in the chair. After singing, the Rev. J. E. Trotter led in prayer.

Prof. A. H. Newman, Secretary of the Senate of McMaster University, read the Annual Report of the Senate of McMaster University.

The adoption of the report as read was moved by Chancellor MacVicar, and in doing so he entered into a lengthened discussion of the same. He was followed by Mr. John Dryden, M.P.P., who seconded the motion in an able address.

The discussion which ensued was participated in by brethren, Dr. Murdoch, Wm. Muir, W. K. Anderson, E. D. Sherman, Alex. Grant, J. B. Huff, Dr. Rand, D. E. Thomson, Prof. Farmer, J. G. Scott, Powell, Elmore Harris, and others.

Upon motion, the addresses were limited to five minutes, except by special permission of the house.

It was moved in amendment, by the Rev. Ira Smith, and seconded by Rev. J. Dempsey :

That that part of the report relating to Manual Training, beginning on page 17, with the words, "The practical work which should be introduced," and ending with the words, "pay the salary of such a man," on page 22, be not adopted; and that the Senate and Board of Governors be instructed not to proceed further in this direction until more definite information is laid before the denomination.

It being now six o'clock, the body adjourned after prayer by Prof. McGregor.

EVENING SESSION.

Convention resumed business at 7.30; Mr. D. Bentley in the chair. Prayer by Rev. J. E. Trotter.

Moved by Mr. T. Lailey, seconded by the Rev. J. P. McEwen :
