Very considerable additions and alterations were made to the butts and ranges upon the Common at Toronto, with a view of affording all the necessary facilities for conducting a large meeting with expedition and success.

It was a matter of much regret that the attendance at this meeting fell considerably below that of the year previous, and moreover that from a variety of circumstances, representatives from the Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia were, with one exception, unable to attend.

A Camp was formed upon the Garrison Common, close to the ranges, but the very heavy rain which continued for three days and nights, prevented the competitors from taking
