Three motions that rush us, push us and delight us—locomotion, promotion, and motion pictures.

Three milks that we get and give—half milk, all milk, and the milk of human kindness.

Three sights that are great—foresight, hindsight, and out-of-sight.

Three ships that are more or less uncertain—friendship, courtship, and airship.

Three days that are universally remembered—birthday, holiday, and heyday.

Three hearts that beat anything in the world—big heart, warm heart, and sweetheart.

Three times that we go by and stop by—slow time, fast time, and time to quit.

Three hands, of which one should be amputated—a right hand, a left hand, and a little behindhand.—The Metropolitan.

"Tipping" gets worse and worse in England. A New Mexican said that at the Savoy, in London, he went to have a wash before luncheon, but saw a placard on the mirror, saying, "Please tip the basin after using."

This made the man so angry he rushed from the washing-room muttering "No, I'll go dirty first."—National Advocate.

Tommy's Aunt—Won't you have another piece of cake, Tommy?

Tommy (on a visit)—No, I thank you. Tommy's Aunt—You seem to be suffering from loss of appetite.

Tommy—That ain't loss of appetite. What I'm sufferin' from is politeness.

Let the world progress as much as it likes; let all branches of human research develop to the very utmost; nothing will take the place of the Bible.—Gaethe.

I have for many years made it a practice to read through the Bible once a year. It is an invaluable and inexhaustible mine of knowledge and virtue.—John Quincy Adams.
