Bishop McFaul's Impressions of His Holiness Pius X.

At the recent celebration of the silver jubilee of the establishment of the Diocese of Trenton, the toast to the Holy Father was delivered by Rt. Rev. James A. McFaul, who said:
"It is certainly a pleasing task for me to say a few words in response to the toast of the Holy Father. I prize it all the more on this occasion, as it is only lately that I made my visit 'Ad Limina,' and had the honor of making his personal acquaintance."
"He is a man to be remembered, a little above the middle height, of sturdy frame, and a most benign cast of countenance; although rapidly approaching 72 years of age, he is apparently in the enjoyment of perfect health. While he does not impress one as a man possessed of the intellectual vigor of Leo XIII., the philosopher, theologian, the eminent statesman, I am satisfied that he is in his own way equally as remarkable. His bearing is that of the practical, hard-working pastor of souls; a man who has risen from the ranks, stood upon every rung of the ladder and finally attained the sublime office of the Papacy."
"He received me very graciously, 'Holy Father,' said I, 'I speak a little Italian, still it will be easier for me to express myself in Latin.' 'Very well,' he replied. I then immediately began a conversation which lasted about three-quarters of an hour. After announcing that I was the Bishop of Trenton I stated that it was a city famous in American history, that there during the Revolutionary days the Father of his Country, George Washington, had gained a victory over the enemy, which raised the drooping spirits of our forefathers; that here the star of American victory first rose, trembling above the horizon, and never ceased in its course! that it had now reached its zenith, until it shed the effulgence of its rays upon the strong, happy and peaceful nation. I added that my cathedral stood upon that battlefield, on the banks of the lovely Delaware."

"Then I spoke of the progress of the Church under his jurisdiction, as well as of the character and number of our Catholic population. He listened with much interest and said: 'Yes, the American bishops have a great problem before them in the care of so many immigrants. Priests and people must work together for the building up and preservation of the faith. I have the warmest affection for America, her government and people, and I bless them.'"
"Afterwards he spoke of the trouble in France. He declared that one of his fondest hopes was that the Church there might enjoy the same freedom that she does in this country. If France would only grant a real separation of Church and State, conditions would not be so intolerable, but while proclaiming separation she is grasping after the property of the Church. It is not separation; it is destruction."
"In my farewell visit, in obedience to the earnest request of Cardinal Gotti, I explained the objects and scope of the American Federation of Catholic Societies. His Holiness deigned to bestow his blessing on the organization and its members."
"I reminded him that we were about to celebrate the Silver Jubilee of the diocese and requested honors for some of my priests, and some spiritual favors. He very cheerfully granted them all, and when I expressed a fear that I might not remember them distinctly, he wrote them out for me, with his own hand. I was exceedingly impressed with his act of condescension. It proved his well-known humility and kindness of heart. I thanked him over and over again. He took me lovingly by the hand, and said: 'Ah, il mio carissimo vescovo di Trenton' (My dear Bishop of Trenton.)"
"Gentlemen, the present white robed Father of Christendom will carry into effect the great principles enunciated by Leo. He is a man of God; divine Providence has selected him to rule the Church at a very critical and dangerous period. He will be victorious. The enemies of the Church may prevail for a time, but God in His own good time, will 'calm the winds and bid the waves be still.'"
"You recollect that the first Napoleon asked: 'Could the emancipation of the Pope cause the arms to drop from the hands of his soldiers?' Alas! in that disastrous retreat from Moscow nearly 500,000 Frenchmen perished. The artillery of the ice and the snow, and the biting blasts of winter swept his armies from the field."
"God will eventually raise His strong right arm; He will come to the protection of His spouse, and the Church will continue Her triumphal march down the centuries, free and untrammelled will She yet fulfill Her glorious mission to humanity."

LIVER COMPLAINT.
The liver is the largest gland in the body; its office is to take from the blood the properties which form bile. When the liver is torpid and inflamed it cannot furnish bile to the bowels, causing them to become bound and constive. The symptoms are a feeling of fullness or weight in the right side, and shooting pains in the same region, pain between the shoulders, yellowness of the skin and eyes, bowels irregular, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, etc.
MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS are pleasant and easy to take, do not gripe, weaken or sicken, never fail in their effects, and are by far the safest and quickest remedy for all diseases or disorders of the liver.

Stepping Stones to Womanly Health
A woman's health is more precious than riches. To keep well and strong, there are special reasons why a woman should take extra care of herself at times when Nature makes unusual demands upon her strength and vitality.
For woman's peculiar ailments there is no remedy so true and tried as Beecham's Pills
This wonderful medicine has been a boon to women for over half a century. They dispel lassitude, low spirits, relieve headache and depression, operate the bowels and supply red corpuscles to the blood. Beecham's Pills fortify and beautify; bring back the appetite, improve the digestion, regulate the functions, clear the complexion, brighten the eyes, send the glow of health to the cheeks and kindness and prayer. Faith is a gift from God, and all the oratory and argument in the world will not bring faith unless there is also prayer."

Archbishop Farley told of his recent conditions of the Church, especially in the northern countries. In the capital of Ireland, he said, there is a parish of hundreds of souls, every one of whom is a convert. In a convent of twelve Sisters the majority of them were converts, and no two were of the same nationality. In Scotland, he said, the people are returning to the old faith, which was stolen from them at the time of the Reformation. The Archbishop said

A Clever Trick
Many striking illustrations of the shrewdness of Irishmen are getting publicity at the sitting of the commission in Dublin on agriculture and industries. Rev. Patrick L'wing, the other day, told of an Irishman who started a factory for the making of leather for boot uppers. He was told he would lose money. But the man, knowing the idiosyncrasies of the buyers, went ahead and began manufacturing. He did not make his stuff as of Irish manufacture, but instead stamped each article with "Jamaica Paris," which translated means "Never in Paris." People fell over each other to get his goods, he had to enlarge his factory, and is not, even now, able to fill all his orders.

WEAK TIRED WOMEN
How many women there are that get no refreshment from sleep. They wake in the morning and feel tired than when they went to bed.
They have a dizzy sensation in the head, the heart palpitates; they are irritable and nervous, weak and worn out, and the lightest household duties during the day seem to be a drag and a burden.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS are the very remedy that weak, nervous, tired out, sickly women need to restore them the blessings of good health.
They give sound, restful sleep, tone up the nerves, strengthen the heart, and make rich blood. Mrs. C. McDonald, Portage la Prairie, Man., writes: "I was troubled with shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and weak spells. I got four boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after taking them I was completely cured."
Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or the The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
