A DAINY MENU. A great deal of the success of the benefit garden party held last week on the grounds of Mr. John Mallon, was due to the dainty menu served by the Shredded Wheat Company. Nothing more acceptable to those who thronged the grounds could be imagined than the many creations produced by this hygienic and artistic company. The light and creamy biscuits of many sizes and shapes, the pyramids of luscious berries and foaming cream were all admired and eaten and praise for the dainty serving was heard on every hand. All should patronize this healthful and satisfying company.

The many branches throughout the Dominion, the high profits secured, the increased business in the North-west and the everywhere prosperity of the work of this great financial institution, are cause for congratulation, and the still further development of the Home Bank will be everywhere followed with interest.

A TIMELY BOOK

The ancient fortress City of Quebec this year celebrates the 300th anniversary of its founding by Champlain. A very interesting and tasteful souvenir is the book.

Old Quebec, the City of Champlain

By Miss Emily F. Weaver author of "A Canadian History for Boys and Girls," and illustrated by Miss Annie E. Weaver

Paper, 50 Cents net, Cloth 75 Cents net.

In The Mail and Empire, Katherine Hales writes: "Miss Weaver has evidently deeply loved and studied Quebec, and her little volume is one that must charm and delight, not only the traveller who has been, or will go, to Quebec, but the student of history who needs to look back through all the centuries to find his Quebec of to-day. I do not remember having read before such brief, spiritual and suggestive sketches as those of Samuel de Champlain, the founder of Quebec, and Montcalm, its brave defender, while nowhere has the famous battle of the Plains of Abraham been more vividly set forth. A word must be said for the illustrations, which greatly enhance the value of 'Old Quebec.'"

Embellished with over 100 original illustrations, most of them from pen-and-ink drawings by Miss Annie E. Weaver. Bound in dark blue and gold, with the coat-of-arms of Quebec and an etching of Champlain's ship in a panel of fleur-de-lis.
