Balkan Nursery Rhymes.

(By Sir Owen Seaman, in "Punch.")

(After Tennyson's lullaby in "Sea Dreams.")

"What does little birdie say
In her nest at break of day?"

What does little Ferdie say
In his tent behind the fray?
"I'm afeared," says little Ferdie.
"I shall lose my head some day."
Ferdie, wait a little longer
Till the hate of you grows stronger,
And your nose a little longer—
You shall lose your head some day.

What does little Tino say
In his chamber, Athens way?
"Let me off," says little Tino.
"I don't want to join the fray."
Tino, what of Salonika?
Though his fides may be Groeca,
For the sake of Salonika
Tino too shall join the fray.

What does little Mehmed say
In his harem, far from gay?
"Since you ask me, I was thinking
I should like to run away.
Whether England knocks me silly,
Or I wipe the boots of Willy,
I shall end by looking silly;
I'm a loser either way."

The Spice of Life.

Miss Coy—Oh, what beautiful flowers! There's still a little dew on them.
His Nibs (absent-mindedly)—I know; but I'll pay it to-morrow.

The teacher of natural geography directed all her pupils to write a definition of the word "geyser." Willie evolved this definition:
"A kaiser is a disturbance of the earth's surface."

DOCTOR—I have to report, sir, that you are the father of triplets.
POLITICIAN—Impossible! I'll demand a recount.

"There's lots of money in stocks."
"Quite right; that's where mine went."

W. R. Cruse, Ontario Co., Ontario, when sending $4.50 for three years' sub- scription, encloses the following verse:

Your paper takes me away, way back, to the good old times I had,
When the men would come to our farm to plow the land for Dad;
Sometimes I'd ride the horse's back, else ride upon the plow;
Those good old days, tho' passed away,
I well remember now.
