The Masonic Assembly.—We understand that among the many attractive features contemplated in connection with this brilliant affair, it is intended to have the stage of the Osborne hall arrepted and fitted up for parlor games, in the past, and hope to merit a continuance of the same; and in doing so would respectfully call your attention to my stock of goods vaniable for the X mas and New Year's trade, which is far superior to any former year. I hope to be favoured with a special inspection of my goods. Every arrangement will be made for the proper attention and comfort of customers. My store, No. 3, Merchauls Block, Wallace Street, will remain open every night till ten o'clock from the 13th to the 24th, inclusive, for the accommodation of those who cannot come during the day. Goods can be bought early and laid anide for delivery at any pagiticular time. The great number of people who come on the two or three days precious to X mass day make it almost impossible to attend property to everyone, therefore I would respectfully impress on those who have made up their minds as to what goods they want, to call early and avoid the crush.

Yours Respectfully,

J. W. BRISBIN.

The Rev. H. Bartlett opened an Advent Mission in Shelburne last week, being the first week in Advent, with a sergmon on the "Day of Judgement." Several able and eloquent elergymen are on the pogramme to continue the Mission for the Rev. W. Bevan, who is well and fayourably known here. The congregations are large and the services are heartily and devoutly rendered.

Cheap Money.—Two of our advertisers,

CHEAP MONEY.—Two of our advertisers, Mr. R. Martin, of this town, and Mr. Hunt of Wallace, announce that they are prepared to loan money at 6 per-cent. This should be good news for borrowers. It may also be accepted as a sign of the better times which have made their appearance under the N.P. With plenty of money seeking investment at low rates of interest, the improvement of the agricultural status of the country and the development of manufacturing industries are assured.
