OTHIER

Cast Ever Put

THE STAGE T SCENIC EFFECTS

He scurried up C international h all these communities are going one do but gang her ain gait, merely one do but gang her ain gait merely one do but gang her ain gain gang her ain gang her ain gang her ain gang her ain gang her a

Instead of one big, scatat thoroughly friendly comnit there are a dozen little ones-the fugitive and, as wi and pet creeds. What this ny kicking.

"she exclaimed with emotion.

DKINGMANS . .

mporter

ory Brick.

OVISIONS.

OD PRODUCTS

of wall paper

Anderson

O., Ltd.

lled, the houses fairly comfor- our youth.

wondered at. elps to increase her power this, he says with a laugh for the revelation invariably hang !"

ome toughs; the gallant policem ginning. The ending was his replying to Aunt' Amelia's letter of exostulation and command with a badly-spelled but heartily meant quotation from the one poet whom he

From the heretic girl of my soul shall I fly,

To seek somewhere else a more or thodox kiss?"

and so on, and so forth, much to his own pleasure and Aunt Amelia's wrath.

The other is that of a Scotch girl. reals off to look at a rustic The Mormons are averse to their maidens going out to domestic service, knowing well that once in the home of the gentile, and removed udot of long friendship. "You straint, they are apt to stray from the finish your sentences and the fold. But the Scotch girl, besides heep us on the rack. What is it being strong and pretty, was inde was thinking of that Mormon in the nearest town. wondering whether the came hack to believe in polygamy or not. was asked to return. This she refusare but one wife," puts in Jean-not. A deputation of the faithful "A just and proper law, too.

It should take more than one waited on her. She held her head high, and refused to be talked over revelation, and Aunt Amelia proceed-This from the man of the ed to have it. The girl should at who is promptly ignored. Pen-once return and become the wife of a certain Mormon was the gist of the reading of the Mormons," said revelation. Instead of being over-"do you never wonder come at having all this take place on even what this new land needs is than a revelation to make her marry have always associated with the THE WAR IN to mix and mingle with their any man but one of her own choose spouse of the noble red man. They ree with Elizabeth. There are trict, and is rapidly growing larger. What do they think, I wonder, as operates the vessel, for a consideration of Gradually the strength of the average Mormon looks with sustant they dook at everything with their shows Indications of Gradually pictor on on outsider. He gives the deep expressionless eyes? No feat of the strength of the str a their own especial beliefs and gentile as little of his time, or courdaring, no display of grandeur (circus tesy, or money, as possible. When he grandeur), breaks up the immobility makes an excursion for the purpose of of their faces; no jest or prank of replenishing his stores he proceeds clown or trained animal wakens a British warily. The horses are unhitched hint of laughter. They dance to gold by nothing broader than from the waggon, or, to use a west-man's piping. ern phrase, prairie schooner, on the "Look," whispers Jeanette, and were wounded or captured. outskirts of the town, and tethered turning around my eyes fall on as London, Oct. 1 -"Mr. Kruger, He finishes his business with despatch. pretty a picture as one need wish for. He eats in his own waggon, and goes The chief figure in it is a young home without spending one cent more squaw-it is a dull picture that has from Brussels, "has abandoned the Seattle reports that she had about strong wall of distrust.

is a large place, a very large feetly delightful, but hard on the firstborn, a fat brown atom of hu- Kitchener, replying to a comm wit, my fine and subtle sense of Who minds appearances when the days turned to the forest dim or the from South Africa. coble flame is swiftly quench- for making our home with the Indi- What camping grounds they to they keep themselves to them one day, when a circus procession is camp fires glowed, their slim trails but they draw into the circle in progress. The Indians are out in ran. The hills and the valleys, the as they can. Their head is a full force. They must be fond of ex- lakes and the rivers, the wood and burghers still in the field, in accordno less a personage than the citement, these stolid folk, for where- all the spreading land were theirs, ance with the terms of Lord Kitchenof Brigham Young. Her ever there is anything in the way of their arrows whistled in the wind, er's previous proclamation. law. They are not progres- dissipating, merrymaking, or sight- their birch canoes shot swiftly to and they hold fast to their old beseeing, there are they gathered toand keep as remote as possible gether. The procession is like any gether are they gathered tofro upon the waters, their moccasined get trod proudly, though silently, the gether trod proudly, though silently, the contile people and gentile ways. other circus procession, but the crowd great stretches of prairie. It was all AND insisted on by that astute lining the sidewalk and grouping on their own. And now-now— "Well, THE NEW SAVOY THEATER.

he daughter of Brigham the commons is a unique one. Indi- what has civilization given them?" known to the community as ans with gorgeous head-dresses, with I ask. "This circus procession Amelia," is that the young of big rings in the ears and grotesque one thing," says Jeanette. exes be kept in the settlement adornment of their long braids of a graver tone, "and schools, such time as they are settled in black hair; squaws with red and blue missions, and many great things. You there must be no going over to and yellow robes, and shawls which would not wish this glorious country not of the faith—unless it he to chief glory of this tribe is the head. Indian could war and hunt, but he such into the fold. Aunt Am- All the finery is for that important could not develop the is strict, her watchfulness part of the body, for it beads are beauty of the land. She is the head and ex- strung and ribbons woven. One has "I suppose not," I returned, "but l an unquestioning obedi- something different from his fellows; feel a great sympathy for each command. She is a a brass wheel which looks as though red man. her, a good talker, and if it were screwed in the back of his "So do l." ponsibility and deference head, but which must be fastened un- "Natural," puts in the man Young's daughter is a What seems strange is that groups in a tepee cition of himself, say those of these Indians pass groups of other "Dark behind it rose the forest, met them both. She claims Indians without a glance of recogni- Rose the black and gloomy pine trees, to trances, to see visions, to tion or word of greeting. When I ask Kose the firs with cones upon them; mere man or woman dares to "Oh, the Indian and the Scot is "Shall-I go on "

be. It is rare indeed that it to be ashamed of himself, for he never "There isn't coomplish its mission. is ashamed of himself. Besides, I am stand on record. The first is Then there is another tribe who man who playsn Irishman, who, instead of have all sorts of fixings on their feet; "The piano," he interrupts. affections on a Mormon straps, buckles, beautifully braided heard it before, and there's nothing to st needs fix them on a Sal- moccasins, gilt buttons on the leg- it. Women shouldn't try to joke. my lass—of all people. It gings. One more enterprising than they have no sense of humor."

ut naturally enough. He his fellows has a string of thimbles.

Before we can collect our forces and man, and as the settle- round his ankles. The squaws are not renew the attack, he has sauntered no need of his services he so fine. They seem to have donned away. to the corporation of a such ornaments as their braves could "Some day we will get even with The lass in the poke not find room for. But these have him," says Elizabeth, but I have my sted one night by not the squat, unwieldly figures we doubts.

THE PROPERTY.

DAWSON'S NEW PUBLIC SCHOOL BUILDING.

than he is compelled to spend. He no woman in it-a typical squaw, idea of sending a delegation to the 200 passengers on leaving Lynn canal makes a good settler, in that he is with high cheekbones, braids of coarse president of the United States, having four days ago -P.-I., Oct 3 careful and hardworking, a poor set- black hair and swarthy skin. Her pursue the policy of non-interventler in that he keeps between himself dress of scarlet is frayed and greasy. un neighbor would not speak and his neighbor of another faith a It may have been her wedding dress, Pretoria, Sept. 30.—A pamphlet has who knows? Anyway, it has seen its been published here, under Lord Kit- ter since she eloped? But, as Jeanette says, there is best days, and is scant and dirty, chener's authority, containing notice will we do when we get to plenty of room for everyone to have a But you only notice her face, warm, of the permanent banishment of sev little space to himself if he wants to. full of emotion, and the proud, lan- eral Boer leaders captures since the willing to come home and be for complexion. Some of our party-I manity, a miniature, still who looks tion from Acting President Cchalkname no names have taken on such as though he never laughed or cried. berger, received September 55th. Lord "see anyone coming you a beautiful coat of tan that they re- Such a quaint baby; homely, yes-but Krichener promises to send the Schalcare for just stroll down an semble the original owners of this not in her eyes, nor in the eyes of the berger letter to the imperial govern or take to the shrubbery great west. The man of the house father, who stands a little apart ment, which, he says, reciprocates the has one joke he never tres of, and looking down on his squaw and his Boer statements of desire for peace. that is suggesting that these be offspring with a pride which refuses Lord Kitchener then proceeds to exthe remarkes gravely, "and be dropped off at some Indian village, to be covered by the mask of indiffer plain that the responsibility for the gathering her skirt up and and allowed to join their own tribe. ence be wears. It is a picture to be war rests upon the burghers, "whose for shelter it is going to Jeanette enjoys it. It is very well remembered. Looking at it you invasion of unprotected British terfor her, but we cannot all be blondes realize vaguely that the Indian who ritory opened the saddest page hat connection is there between with a pretty wave to our hair. We stalks the crowded street, unseeing, South African history." nain and my /remarks?" he grum of the dark skin and straight locks unfeeling, and lacking in life and pas- He quotes a letter from a memb "None in the world, except think it rather a poor sort of joke, sion, is another creature when he is of the volksraad to a member of the you delight in pouring cold and tell him so, but be pays no heed. away from the haunts of men, his Cape Colony assembly declaring that In the hope of extinguishing After all, we are too happy to care foot on his native heath, his face "the time is ripe to drive the English are crowded full of enjoyment? As prairies wide, that are home to him. In conclusion Lord the quotes, lauguing back at ans, well, we feel no burning desire to have had in the good old days before republics to Great Britain, he cannot and then a swift run ends the do that, but they are interesting peo- the white man, with his civilization, break faith with the people who have ion and leaves us too out of ple. They are a better class than the and also his greed of power, and lust shown loyalty to the new regime, and Indians of the eastern provinces — of land, came among them! Now so far as clemency to Cape rebels is particular Mormon settlement finer-looking, more like the ones we they have their reserves, bits of land concerned, this is the prerogative of itoba. The farms are fairly read of and pictured in the days of surveyed and staked off; then there the rulers which must be exercised led, the houses fairly comforThey are a zealous people, not they keen themselves to them.

ther somewhat tyrannical it der his hair somehow. The effect is house, "perfectly natural. I daresay things revealed to her, the man of the house the reason of Bright before it heat the water, Beat the clear and sunny water her decree she has only to much alike': Each sticks to his own "You have that poor little joke revelation to bring such to clan, and lets the rest of the world go worn to shreds," laughs Elizabeth.

ses of rank disobedience are too much interested to argue. with golden hair in it, and a gentle-says a dispatch to the Daily Mail eastern Alaska today. The City of

This gipsying by steam is per- gorous eyes of her resting on her 15th, and also a long letter from Lord given "-Chicago Record-Herald Steamer Dirigo Is Sold. The remaining half interest in the Butler's.

McGregor has been purchased by the Alaska Steamship Company, which perates the vessel, for a considera San Francisco, owned the interest sold. The deal gives the Alaska 30 .- The Steamship Company entire ownership

Negotiations for the sale were concluded vesterday morning. The Diri-

"Has Spicer heard from his daugh

Photo Supplies For Amateurs and Professionals. A COMPLETE STOCK

Goetzman Pholographe

*

Klondike Corporation, Limited

The Captains of our boats are the highest paid and consequently the most competent navigators on the river.

We Never Had An Accident!

Klondike Corporation, Limited R. W. CALDERHEAD, Manager.

* Thawing

The Best Hydraulic Pipe

EVERY ONE GUARANTEED Dawson Hardware Co.,

WANTED—For company mess, a good FOUND—Bundle of papers containing cook and housekeeper. Applicants 'miner's license, grants, etc. Apply must be thoroughly competent in every respect. Address Z., Nugget

FOR SALE-Latest improved coal heater. Apply Nugget office. Send a copy of Goetzman's Souve ir to cutside friends. A complete pictorial history of Klondike. For ale at all news stands. Price $2.50

WADE, CONGDON & AIKMAN -vocates, Notaries, etc. Office, A Office Building.

Rooms 7 and 8 A. C. Office Bldg

************ PATRONS OF THE Bay City Market

FULL LINE CHOICE BRANDS

Wines, Liquors & Cigars

CHISHOLM'S SALOON.

BOYSUYT & CO., - Props ************

Cox & Cloes,

Cor. 2nd and 2nd. Telephone 179.

Next Monday Will See — the Finish —

STEAMER ___

The boat that could not be suppressed by our powerful and envious rivals, will make her this year's Final Trip to Whitehorse, leaving the Aurora Dock Wednesday, 10 a.m.

WAIT FOR HER!

Special arrangements have been made to make this trip one of pleasure to our patrons. will be with a jolly crowd of merry-makers if

.. Join the Picnic Party...

AURORA DOCK

N.A.T.&T.CO

We Have the Largest and Best Variety of Stoves In the Territory.

See Cole's Hot Blast Stoves in 5 sizes, specially adapted for Lignite Coal. We have the Celebrated Jewell Range, manufactured by the Detroit Stobe Co.; also an Endless Variety of Air Tight Heaters and Wood Cook Stoves.

Tin Shop in Connection with Hardware Department. Stodes bought here fitted up at reduced prices.

A Good Stock of White Enamelware and Cooking Utensils.