The annual Decoration Service of Hiawatha Lodge, I. O. O. F., held Sunday last was a most interesting ceremony, and was attended by an immense concourse of people. The long line of Oddfellows, headed by the fine 93rd Regimental Band from Camp Aldershot, marched from their hall to the Oaks Cemetery to perform this service of love in memory of their deceased brethren. The floral offerings were very lovely, being carried in Three Link trays, emblematic of the Order. It was a beautiful and impressive sight as this immense gathering, brightened by the many uniforms of the officers and men from Aldershot, gathered reverently around the graves to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of the departed. Chaplain Lane of the 93rd Regiment conducted the service, assisted by Past Grand Master C. F. Rockwell.

Almost a New Store

Those of you who have not been in my store for the past few weeks will notice a big difference in the appearance. It has been made almost new from the front to the back door. The changes will make it a far better place for you to do your buying.

Some of the improvements are a new hardwood floor, walls and ceiling covered with Beaver Board, six new windows on the West side over the shelving which gives an abundance of natural light even on dark days, rewired throughout and electric lighted with ten new 85 candle power Tungston lamps and large glass reflectors making it by far the best lighted store in town. Other improvements to be put in at once will include hot water heating and a toilet.

I have had no window displays for five weeks and the goods are a bit mixed up as you would expect in house cleaning time, but I hope you will continue to come; and we will do our best to serve you.

In another week or ten days I hope to have the painting and varnishing all done and the shelves and tables ready to receive the new fall goods which are now in the store waiting to be opened.

Come in and see how you like the appearance of the store. It has certainly changed since I first walked in to it over three years ago.
