KENTVILLE, MAY 26th, 1916.

Great Political Demonstration at Kentville.

On Monday evening a public meeting in the interests of the Liberal Conservative candidates, Lieut. J. D. Spidell and J. E. Kinsman was held at the Nickel Theatre. That large building was completely crowded with standing room all taken both in the balcony and main hall and many who could not obtain seats were obliged to go away.

Dr. DeWitt presided and gave a few well chosen remarks. The first speaker was J. Everett Kinsman. This was his first appearance on a political platform as a speaker and the audience was not expecting too much of him so early in the campaign. All were surprised at the manner in which he presented his facts as he briefly outlined some of the political questions of the day. He showed that he had the interests of the farmers and other electors at heart and fully understood what was necessary in good roads, wise expenditures and careful handling of the public resources to make our country and our people more prosperous. He received a most attentive hearing and was loudly applauded as he finished his address.

Lieut. Spidell was heard next and he at once proved his ability as a speaker on a political platform. He showed how the Murray Government had abused their opportunities and misapplied the public revenues. For their careless and incompetency Murray and his Government would be retired from office by progressive Government installed. Mr. Tanner had as great ability as any man in public life in the Province. He wished as a candidate to stand square on the issues presented. As a temperance man he was now as he had been in the past and would maintain the same principles for the future. There were also many other issues that were probably fully as important and he stood firm on a platform that would be for the general public welfare such as the Conservatives were prepared to give when returned to power at the next election.

Mr. Spidell traced the history of the temperance question and showed how every piece of legislation had been obtained by the Temperance Alliance in the face of much Opposition from the Government. Even the Nova Scotia Temperance Act though a great wave of reform had swept all the Provinces. Murray and his followers had not the courage to make it a Government measure. He placed the credit for most of the temperance legislation upon Mr. H. R. Grant, secretary of the Alliance, a noble undefatigable worker and Mr. Tanner and his colleagues had supported him nobly in all his efforts. Tanner had never equivocated or played fast and loose with the question as Murray had. He then made his appeal to the electors to support Mr. J. E. Kinsman and himself in the present contest. He closed amid quite an ovation from the audience.

Major J. Willis Margeson, M. P., was the last speaker and the others had left for him to deal particularly with the public issues in this campaign. This he did in an address which completely stirred the vast audience and convinced them, beyond a doubt that the days of usefulness of the Murray Government was long past and if this Province wished to hold her status among the Provinces of the Dominion she must call able men to conduct her affairs.

Mr. Margeson congratulated Kings County upon the selection of two such able representatives, and stalwart men of character as Spidell and Kinsman. No better choice could have been made. Mr. Kinsman was a man who had made a great success as a fruit grower and farmer, also had made good in Municipal Council affairs. He was a representative farmer who understood every need of the great farming class of the County. Now was the time for the farmers to elect one of their own. Mr. Spidell's ability and popularity was well known. Mr. Margeson said he began his political career as a speaker with Mr. Campbell at Somerset years ago. It would be interesting now to record what Mr. Campbell said at that time about the Murray Government and also about his present colleague. Also much interest would be aroused if Mr. Wickwire's opinions and the Western Chronicle editorial on Mr. Campbell in his first campaign could be reproduced.

The speaker then told his hearers in convincing arguments, many reasons why they should vote against supporters of the Murray Government. He fully outlined their pernicious mining policy and how the people were paying $2.00 or more a ton for coal to give the Government 12 1-2 cents royalty on a 99 year lease, that did not protect the peoples interest. Then Crown lands dispersion public debt record and most pernicious road policy were all explained. It was a standing disgrace the way road monies were put in the hands only of those who would vote Liberal. The broken promises to abolish the Legislative Council, the expensive immigration policy by which foreigners can get money to buy anything, and our own ready young farmers, who can get no assistance, are driven out of the Province were held up to public ridicule. For these and the corrupt way Murray, Daniels and Armstrong had paid out the public funds without just cause or reason was sufficient to warrant a change at Halifax and Kings would certainly do her part by electing such men as Spidell and Kinsman.

Provincial Elections To Be Held June 20th.

The House of Assembly of Nova Scotia was dissolved Monday afternoon and the writs for the general election were immediately issued. Nomination day will be on Tuesday, June 13, and polling day will be on Tuesday, June 20th.

This will give a campaign of about four weeks, a long enough time for the electors to learn about and emphatically condemn the Murray Government.

Spidell and Kinsman stand for a new and progressive Government, one in which the peoples interests will be carefully looked after and the resources of the Province used for the public good—not private gain.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lyons and three children spent the 24th at Canning, guests at Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Lyons.

Any person wanting a quantity of half brick or bricks with broken corners can have same free if hauled away at once. Apply at Advertiser Office.

Mr. Lorrimer Illsley, who graduated from Dalhousie Law School this month has again entered the office of Roscoe and Roscoe. It is to be hoped that he will remain in his native County to continue the practice of his profession. Both at Acadia and at Dalhousie Mr. Illsley made exceptionally high records and at the completion of his law course he had the distinction of leading his class in every subject. This we think has never been equalled certainly could not be excelled.
