DEATH OF LEANDER S. DICKIE

Word has just been received here of the death of Leander S. Dickie, on Oct. 18th of Leander S. Dickie, a man well known and most highly esteemed in the city.
 Mr. Dickie had been ill only 12 days of pneumonia and the last word received was that he was improving.
 Dickie was a son of the late George Dickie of Lower Canada and his mother died two years ago at the advanced age of 107 years. He left Kings County many years ago and of late has been engaged in the manufacturing of hats in Philadelphia. In business circles he was respected and well informed by all who knew him, well informed in questions of the day and prominent in charitable work and needs.

He leaves a sorrowing wife who has been in hospital for a short time at the result of an accident. His brothers and sisters are as follows: Mrs. James Bon-den of North Grand Pre, James Bon-die of Kentville, Messrs Herbert B. and Elmon of Lower C. and Leander's sister Amanda who was summoned to Philadelphia from near by at the time of his death.

is censored official report of the discussion of the food condition by the Budget Committee of the Provisional De-session of which was held behind closed doors, shows that except for the potatoes crop, which promises to be satisfactory, the food situation is by no means as rosy as the Government has been trying to paint it.

Bread and potatoes will be the bulk of the ration as the meat allowance will almost certainly be reduced. Milk and butter will be available even in scantier amounts than now, when infants must be fed on substitutes.
