The Toronto Mail has come out fairly and squarely in favor of prohibition. It argues that the Maine law has not been the failure it has been represented to be and ends by advising that zeal be tempered with liberality.

ENTERTAINMENTS.—As will be seen by notice in another column, Wolfville is to be favored by some rich treats in the way of entertainments during the next few weeks. It is not necessary for us to say that they will be good. Prepare for them!

CATS.—150 BIR. for sale at BURPEE WITTER'S

A valuable two-year-old colt belonging to Stephen Schofield, White Rock, was caught in the wire fence around Fuller's lot, west end of Grand Pre dyke, last week, and had both hind legs just above the hoof, badly cut and lacerated. It is doubtful if the colt can get over the injuries received.

One case St. Croix Gingham, fine quality, at 10c per yard. BURPEE WITTER'S.

GRAND PRE SCHOOL MEETING.—At the annual meeting of school section No. 79, held in Grand Pre schoolhouse on Monday afternoon last, $200 was voted for the ensuing year. The following are trustees: Henry Chipman, M. D., J. A. Woodworth, and W. C. Hamilton, the latter being elected at this meeting. James Laird and R. R. Duncan were reported auditors.

Having recently imported a "Perfect-Ion Sheep Shearer," I am prepared to sharpen and put in first-class order shears and scissors of every description. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed. J. M. SHAW, Wolfville.

On Tuesday night last a team from the Railroad Station, going along Water St., got tangled up in a rope that seemed to be stretched across the street and ended being made fast on opposite sides. How the driver soon discovered that there was a horse on one end; and pretty soon there was a man, two horses, a rope and a loaded wagon very much mixed up. Now the man wants to know if it is etiquette to fasten one end of a long rope to a post on one side of the street and the other end to a big horse on the other side on such a dark night. If so he wants to emigrate.

PULPITS.—Rev. Dr. McNab, of Glasgow, Scotland, preached in the Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening.

Rev. J. B. Hemmison occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church, Lower Horton, on Sunday morning last. His remarks were particularly addressed to children, taking for his text subject words found in the fifth chapter of Second Kings. In the evening the pastor, Rev. D. W. Johnson, occupied the pulpit, preaching an excellent discourse from Daniel 12th chapter and 13th verse.

The Celebrated Electric Dyes are the best lasting of all colors. Warranted strictly pure. 10 cents at Druggist and Grocers.

FIRE.—The dwelling house, owned and occupied by Mrs. James Harris situated on the back road, Lower Wolfville, was discovered to be on fire on Saturday morning last, but as the fire had not gained much headway it was extinguished, as was thought. At about 3 o'clock the same day it again took fire and this time it was totally consumed before assistance could be procured. Mrs. Harris was absent at the time, but most of her furniture was saved. The house, or a portion of it, was over 100 years old and was insured for a small amount. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue.

BURPEE WITTER.

Wolfville, Sep. 28th, 1886.

S. S. CONCERT.—A concert in connection with the Lower Horton Methodist Sunday school will take place instead of the regular service at the church on Sunday evening next. The superintendent, F. G. Curry, and his able staff of teachers have done their best in preparing the scholars for this concert and no doubt it will be as usual an entire success.

BARRELS.—J. D. Martin wishes to inform his patrons that apple barrels can be obtained in Wolfville, from Edward Paine who is acting as his agent in this place.

John McDonald, for a number of years foreman of the press room of the Halifax Herald, was found floating in Halifax harbor on Friday last. The deceased was a sober industrious man, and the large funeral which attended the remains to its last resting place on Sunday last testified to the high esteem in which he was held by his fellow types and citizens generally.

JOURNALISTIC.—J. D. BORDERS, the special customs detective, has purchased the plant of the St. Stephens, N. B. Enterprise. If he makes the Enterprise as successful a paper as he has proved himself a customs detective, it will be a regular terror to evildoers.

The Digby Courier has come out on its 13th year in a brand new dress. We wish brother Farnham continued success with his paper, as it is a new and well-conducted sheet and a credit to Digby county.

CATS.—150 BIR. for sale at BURPEE WITTER'S

Choice Imported and Domestic Cigars at 3, 4, 5, 7, 8 and 10 cents at J. M. SHAW'S.

Grand Pre Items.

Provincial Engineer Murphy, was here a short time ago inspecting bridges, and Engineer Dorne was here this week surveying the bridge across the Gaspeau at Wallbrook, and the celebrated London bridge between the Bluff and Hantsport.

A contract is to be put in at the latter place, which will make that good for all time. A new wooden bridge is to replace the old one at Wallbrook. The new bridge will be built a little to the east of the one now standing, and the old bridge will remain for the accommodation of the public until the new one is completed. This will place Ward 9 in a good position with regard to roads and bridges.

There is much talk about a Councillor. A requisition has been very numerous signed in favor of Councillor F. G. Curry. He has consented to resign the P. O. and accept a nomination.

Our Annual School Meeting passed off very harmoniously. A sum was voted sufficient to provide a male teacher for the winter. Miss Davison, we believe, is going to California at the close of this term. Her teaching during the past year has given very general satisfaction.

Your correspondent, R. R. D's, report of the Ladies' Missionary Meeting was excellent. I cannot improve on it, but will take the liberty of mentioning that Miss Gilmore's paper was the only original one. We have heard more than one praise its literary merits as well as the earnestness shining through it. If we were a Ladies' Missionary Society, or two editors, we should try to persuade the writer to allow its publication.

Our apples are finding a market in New York this season. A buyer from that city has secured several lots of Gravensteins at $1.50 and Ritisans at $2.00. He is also buying Kings. Buyers are also in the county from London. A gentleman informed me Mr. Harris, of Belcher St., had sold his entire crop of winter fruit, for cash, to go to London.

I never saw a larger crop of finer fruit in Lower Horton. Apples of all kinds are large, smooth and beautifully colored. I notice the frosty nights bring out the colors.

I was in Hantsport a few days ago and boarded J. B. North's new bark, the Acadia.—Latin for Avon, I suppose. She is one of the largest ships ever built on the river. As we stood on the stern and looked forward, it seemed a journey to the bow—over 200 feet from stern to bow—about 270 feet out on the bow-stem, and about 50 feet the shortest, and 84 the longest. As I looked aloft and then over the side my head swam. It was a dizzy height for a landlubber, even on the decks, and Mr. Dakin was making some very pretty Oar and Walnut in her cabin. There was a bath-room completely fitted up, and a cooking range, which cost $80. The coal bunkers were right alongside, so that the cook will not have to go to the fore-castle for coal. There was a great iron windlass from the Windsor Foundry which cost $700. We saw what we could in a short time, and then climbed over the rail and away down to the ground, and looked up at her. She is a magnificent ship. The little boy's mother told him he might go swimming if he wouldn't go near the water, and I should like to command the Acadia if she didn't go to sea. Capt. Lockhart Porter is to be the favored man. She will be launched very soon.

Potatoes are badly rotted; everything else is and here. I might make some more items, but I like to come pretty near the truth, so I will wait till they make themselves.

Hill intends loading a schooner with potatoes soon.—L. C. Elliot, Mastown, is building a new shop.—Londonerry station is being newly painted.—The Bass River Furniture Co., are shipping a considerable amount of furniture.—Ridgely Lodge, 1 O. O. F., Great Village, held a social Friday evening.—Lorne Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Athena Lodge, I. O. O. G. T. Economy, held a picnic a short time ago. A number of societies were invited.—Missionary meetings are being held by Rev. Mr. Churchill and Mrs. Churchill in different places.—Rev. Mr. Chiquin lectured in this vicinity last night.—One of J. M. Blackie's vessels, the Brig Parus, is repairing at Great Village river.
