We gladly welcome to our adv. columns again this week an old patron and popular business man of this county.
We refer to J. W. Ryan, of Kentville, whose announcement appears in another place in this issue. Mr. Ryan has decided to close out his stock of general dry goods and devote his whole attention to carpets and house furnishings and clothing. His store is admirably fitted up for the purpose and he has a large and varied stock from which to select.
Mr. Ryan has a reputation for square dealing and his genial manner has won for him many friends throughout the county.

MONEY TO LEND ON MORTGAGE—Apply to E. S. Crawley, Solicitor, Wolfville, N. S.

Dr. Allan Haley, M. P. for Hants County, died in Ottawa on Monday last after a protracted illness. Dr. Haley had for many years figured prominently in the politics of Hants, having previously to his election as member of the federal parliament, in '96, represented Hants County nine years in the provincial legislature. Though not a brilliant debater, Dr. Haley proved himself to be a painstaking and practical representative and a public man of integrity and striking worth. His kindness of manner and his toleration for the views of others secured him many friends on both sides at Ottawa and eloquent tributes to his worth were given in the House on Monday by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Charles Tupper and the Hon. Mr. Fielding, and parliament adjourned for one hour out of honor to his memory. His remains were interred at Windsor on Wednesday.

Acadia's New England Alumni.

Boston, April 24.—The eighth annual reunion and banquet of the New England alumni of Acadia University, Wolfville, was held at the United States hotel last evening. About 30 persons were present. Prof. B. V. Jones, of Acadia, who has been instructor and professor there for about 40 years, gave an address full of interesting reminis-cences concerning the work of Acadia.
President Wood, of the Newton theological institution, also spoke concerning the relations of Acadia and Newton, and Rev. Dr. S. B. Kempton, of Dar-mouth, spoke on behalf of the Board of Governors. Dr. George E. Herr, editor of the Watchman, was also a guest.
Music was furnished by James A. Nick-son, soloist, and Miss Lella C. Titus, pianist, of Everett, and a very enjoyable evening was passed.

At the business meeting before the banquet it was voted to donate $1,000 to the home association in Nova Scotia.
The officers elected for the coming year are:—Rev. E. L. Gates, Nashua, N. H., president; Rev. H. T. DeWolf, Foxboro, vice-president; Benjamin A. Lockhart, Boston, secretary; J. E. Eaton, Rev. A.
T. Kempton, L. F. East, Rev. George B. Titus, directors.
