

SCIENCE TALKS

A celebrated scientist referring to cod-liver oil said that Nature had given the world "almost a ready-made food".

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is richest medicinal cod-liver oil, elaborated in a scientific manner, very much as Nature wraps up each globule of butter-fat. Scott's is not unlike cream in consistency, but many assimilate it easier than they do other fats. Scott's Emulsion is concentrated nourishment that helps keep the body strong. Give it a trial!

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. ## Edith Cavell

The exigencies of war brought out the flame of heroism in the hearts of unnumbered women, many indeed who were wondrously brave, wondrously staunch, magnificently selfless; and who today go unsung. Yet one fancies that upon the great day when all that was mortal of Edith Cavell was brought for burial in her own country, when multitudes everywhere from Dover to London where a beautiful service was held in Westminster Abbey; onward through the glowing countryside to the quaint old city of Norwich, that the spirit of homage was abroad, not alone for this one true woman, but for all the rest who had nobly played their part.

"Life's race well run,
Life's work well done,
Life's crown well won,
Now comes rest!"

These lines from Edward Hazen Parker's funeral ode on President Garfield appeared in Queen Alexandra's writing on a lovely wreath of carnations and lilies, and it is said they fittingly expressed the spirit of the day.

In the shadow of that grand Norman Cathedral, in a quiet spot, that to one who remembers and loves it well; where always there seemed to linger something of the peace that passeth understanding, Edith Cavell rests. Surely in all the world there can be found no more beautiful burying ground. Just beyond stand the crumbling walls of the Lady Chapel, but there is life and growth, too, in Life's Green, rose bloom, as well as the lilacs and wild cherry, and the triangle of sward is green, so tenderly green. There are tall trees, too, where the rooks nest.

The Bishop of Norwich himself read the prayer of committal at the graveside, when the birds were already singing their evensong, and he spoke a few moving sentences of the Christian's sure and certain hope of the Resurrection. Then the "Last Post" was sounded, and all present joined in the Nunc Dimittis: "Now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace."

Rest well, brave heart, type and symbol of all the bravest of your sex. Your work unfinished here, will be continued in the Father's house of "many mansions."
