A WAY TO BETTER BREAD

Good housekeepers, it is said, are known by the bread and pastry they provide for their homes. When we come to think of it, is there any one thing in which she should excel—in which she should take more pride—than in her snowy, delicious, wholesome home-made bread?

Any woman can make white, nourishing bread. One of the commonest causes of failure in the baking is the cause of poor flour. Flour, made of Ontario fall wheat alone, though nutritious and faultless as to flavor, is not strong enough. Manitoba wheat, on the other hand, is deficient in fine flavor and delicacy, although full of strength.

A blend of the two has been found to give wonderful results. This does not mean that you can mix them at home—it is difficult to do that except with the finest and most delicate machinery. Many of the best millers are blending the rich Ontario fall wheat with the flinty Manitoba wheat, thus bringing out all the good qualities of both.

With this Ontario Blended Flour, you will have no trouble in making bread—bread with that peculiarly sweet, wholesome taste which one naturally associates with home-made bread.

As she stood waiting in the shadows of the tree she was sure her heart was going like a dynamo. At last a footstep.

"Oh, G-George, how is the course now?"
"I—I suppose it is clear, love."
"You suppose? Why, didn't you say you were going to speak to pa?"

"Yes, dear. Let me tell you all about it. I walked boldly up to the house."

"How brave!"
"Then I ascended to the porch. Your father was sitting in the green rocker puffing his cigar."

"Ah, how fortunate!"
"I walked straight up to him."
"You did? And spoke to him as you promised?"
"Yes."
"What did you say?"
"I—I asked him for a match."

JULY DESIGNER.

THE DESIGNER is up-to-date in patriotic as in other respects in its July number. The sketch "How the Flag Came by the Name of 'Old Glory,'" is of considerable historical interest. And a very graceful and well illustrated story, "The Colonel's Coming," also appropriate for the war-holiday. The little girl will find one of the prettiest flower plays they ever took part in called "Fairy Godmothers' Botany Lesson." The dressmaker's article gives full directions for the construction of a dainty summer costume. The travelling girl also will find directions for a practical and inexpensive outfit for boat and train use.

JULY NEW IDEA.

What a few prominent philanthropists and some public institutions and charities in our big cities are doing to lower the rate of infant mortality during our tropical summer is told about in an article on "Saving the Babies from the Cities' Heat" by Elizabeth Howard Westwood in the July number of the NEW IDEA WOMAN'S MAGAZINE. In addition to its regular fresh-air activities for babies, and its floating hospitals, every city now has its summer creches, where mothers may take their sick babies for a day of country air, away from the stifling breath of the tenements. The writer in her account gives an idea of the extent of this work, emphasizing that "once the ignorance of tenement mothers is overcome the battle is half won. There are many valuable photographs.

FACTORY AT BATHURST BURNED.

George F. Eddy Loses His Valuable Woodworking Establishment And Stock.

NO INSURANCE

Much Lumber Goes Up In Smoke. Loss From $12,000 to $15,000.

Bathurst, N. B., May 30.—Fire yesterday morning was discovered in the woodworking factory of Geo. F. Eddy, near the old shipyard property at the eastern end of this town. Owing to a large quantity of inflammable material, fanned by a heavy northeast wind, the fire burned with great fierceness, totally destroying the mill's contents, the kiln filled with valuable hard wood lumber, and a large quantity of lumber in the yard. The mill was quite a large one and fitted up with modern machinery. The loss is estimated at between $12,000 and $15,000. There was no insurance.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidney's. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only.

Symptom treatment is treating the RESULT of your ailment, and not THE CAUSE. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now. Dr. Shoop's Restorative sold by Thos. J. Durick.

He was one of those bores who force their company on every girl they meet.

"Dearest," he whispered, trying to be romantic, "you remind me of those stars up there."
"And you," replied the summer girl, hastily, "remind me of yon moon."

"How poetical! Because I am so bright?"
"No, because you are a dead one."

And then the big bore coughed in embarrassment and said he thought it was time to go home.

Minard's Liniment for sale everywhere.

The beautiful girl's sweet smiles changed to dark frowns.
"You deceiver!" she hissed. "I hate you!"

The young man dropped his cane in astonishment.

"Hate me!" he gasped. "Why, it was only yesterday you said you loved every hair on my head."

"Yes, but not every hair on your shoulder," she retorted as she held aloft a golden bit of evidence.

"Yes, Brasser made a fortune in two weeks," remarked the agent with a belated account of the San Francisco earthquake.

"Incredible," replied the wandering hat cleaner. "Did he hold up a bank?"

"No, he went through Kansas selling photographs of the Russian donna."

"And what on earth was there about the Russian donna to attract the Kansans?"

"Why, the long whiskers of the men."

The Charm of a Smile.
A beautiful smile is as potent in the drawing room as on the stage. Every woman can count among her acquaintances the favored few who possess the gift—not a studied, conventional smile that simply tightens the lips across the teeth, but the quick, responsive expression that springs first into the eyes and then to the lips. Another noticeable feature of this gleam of sunshine, which transforms the plainest face and can transfigure the most commonplace surroundings, is that it leaves the features as quickly as it appears.

He Was a Man.
A Scot of Peebles said to his friend MacAndrew, "Mac, I hear ye have fallen in love w' bonny Kate McAllister."
"Weel, Sanders," Mac replied, "I was near—very near—deadin' it, but the bit lassie had nae siller, so I said to myself, 'Mac, be a mon.' And I was a mon, and noo I pass her by w' silent contempt."

Traitor to Her Sex.
"Oh, she's not at all nice," said Little Elsie. "She's always wishin' she was a boy."
"Well," replied Mabel, "I wish I was too."
"I know, but she wishes it out loud, so the boys can hear her."

The Battle of Life.
No man lives without jostling and being jostled. In all ways he has to elbow himself through the world, giving and taking offense. His life is a battle in so far as it is an entity at all.—Carlyle.

A Diplomat.
The Child—Mother, which had I better do, go to school in the rain and get soaking wet and probably catch cold and die or just simply get an absent mark—against my name?—Exchange.

A Bloodless Battle.
In 1518 a battle was fought near Milan, in Italy, and so perfect was the armor of both armies that, although the conflict raged from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., no one on either side was either killed or wounded, though one man broke his collar bone by falling off his horse.

The Ten Hour Day.
As early as 1847 a law was passed in New Hampshire making ten hours a legal day's work.

First Use of the Bayonet.
The bayonet was first made in Bayonne, in France; hence its name. It was first used by the French army in 1671. It was successfully employed by the French during the reign of William III. in an attack on the British Twenty-fifth regiment of foot.

Newmarket Led the Way.
Race meetings are now almost numberless, and from England they have spread over Europe and wherever else the Anglo-Saxon has gone. The first great race meeting may be said to have been that held at Newmarket in 1640, in the reign of Charles I., who was a keen supporter of the sport.

How a Naval Battle Was Lost.
A naval battle between the Romans and Carthaginians off the coast of Spain in the first Punic war was lost by the latter because the galley slaves could not keep their seats when the ships rolled.

The First Policemen.
On Sept. 29, 1829, the good citizens of London saw troops of men dressed in dark blue tail coats, with top hats, parading the streets and maintaining order. They were the pioneer police force and have been dubbed "Bobbies" or "Peelers," from Sir Robert Peel, who inaugurated them.

Gold and Silver Gowns.
The women of Sumatra wear costly dresses, many of them being made of pure gold and silver. After the metal is mined and smelted it is formed into a fine wire, which is woven into cloth and afterward used for dresses.
They were accumulating day by day, on the twenty-fourth day he went into the kitchen and chopped off the forefinger of his left hand as a self punishment, and warning in order to relinquish this evil habit of gambling in the future. He became unconscious through the pain, but was brought round again in a few minutes.

The Turks and the Crescent.
When Philip of Macedon approached by night with his troops to scale the walls of Byzantium the moon, then new or in crescent, shone out and discovered his design to the besieged, who repulsed him. The crescent was after that adopted as the favorite badge of the city. When the Turks took Byzantium they found the crescent in every public place and, believing it to possess some magical power, adopted it themselves.

Consoling.
"Look here," remarked a violinist resentfully, "you were talking all through my solo."
"Oh, don't worry about that," replied the man addressed. "I assure you I wasn't saying anything that you would particularly want to hear."

Theory and Practice.
"I am going to hitch my wagon to a star," exclaimed the enthusiastic young dramatist.
"Don't you do it, my boy," said the experienced manager. "She'll be sure to kick over the traces."

Today.
Live today as though it was the only day you had to live. This is the secret of the forceful life, the life of vitality and beauty, the only life that is worth while.
