Dangerous Partizanship

When a man will permit one party to do a thing, for attempting which he are continually telling us of the present would furiously attack another party, good state of the roads, etc. But are he exposes himself to the charge of the public roads better now than at the dangerous partizanship, which is more same season during the management of to be dreaded in a public man than the Conservative Government? We "offensive partizanship" is in a civil say they are not. The fact is they are servant. Representatives of the people not as good. Of all the branches of whose opinion regarding any policy or public works this is the one which reaction depends almost entirely, so far quires the immediate and effective use as practical effect goes, upon the of the pruning knife and sprayer. It is political party involved in the affair, one of the large money spending deare about as useful as color-blind en partments of the Government, and the gineers or deaf sentinels. WE regret to chronicle the death of Mr Wm, Smith of this city, which occured his wife and sister-in-law went to Rocky Point on a little picnic excursion, During the course of the afternoon while sitting on the shore, he expressed a desire to go and see the Indian encampment in the immediate neighborhood, and left his companions for that purpose. As he did not soon return they set out to meet him. But he was not to be found. One of the Indians had seen him passing by, but he could not be seen or heard. The Indians kindly joined in the search, and the locality was scoured until dark,-In vain. On the following morning the search was renewed and carried on throughout yesterday. Someone had seen him following a path through Mr. Newson's fields towards the road leading from Rocky Point to the South Shore. Late in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith followed that road to the shore, and proceeding around the shore, discoved the body of their father among the rocks at the foot of the high bank in the vicinity of the summer resi dence of Mr. Justice Fitzgerald. When he reached the road, Mr. Smith, whether nistakenly or intentionally, turned to the left instead of the right, and having reached the shore, probably in the gloom of the evening, fell over the bank. There was a deep gash in his temple, and it is not probable that he suffered after his fall. Mr. Smith was in his eightieth year and was one of our oldest residents. He was the eldest son of the late Mr. Isaac Smith, and was born in Charlottetown in December of he year 1817. He was twice married, and he leaves a widow and six children, including Mrs. James Beales and Miss Smith, Messrs Henry, Arthur, and Fred. Smith of this city, and Mr. Alfred Smith
