ED AND OTHERWISE

I am for two bags or more anything that comes across the plate. I have Joe Murphy's word for it. Fans will surely appreciate a close-up artist of this calibre.

THE ASININITIES OF BASEBALL
"Waiting 'em out" on a pitcher can stick 'em as straight and true though he were laying a tape-line on the groove.

Going down to second with the "two and three" with a slow-foot runner on first and your worst terror at the plate.

Rushing home from third on a sort of a grounder after one man out, irrespective of your chance score or gallop-to-sure death.

Banging into a double play instead of sacrificing, with men on first and second and nobody out.

The pitch-out trick-wasting batter after ball with a grinning runner, till you have to send one right over for the batter to slaughter.

With runners on first and third, a two out, delaying the steal of second till two strikes have been called on feeble batsman.

Taking out a pitcher who has been hurling scoreless ball and having pinch hitter strike out for him—am I never saw this here McGraw?

And say, them bunch ain't going cop. He kept shooting off his jaw. And gee! I couldn't make him stop.

"He says to me, he says, says he, 'That he's a daffy kind of bird. Or else I'd know we had a show. When no one knew more than McGraw.'"

I says, says I, to this wise guy. That he was the Irish team. If he could lead the Irish team. Would end the season even the # Fallen Heroes of Beaumont Hamel Honored Yesterday.

Their Memory Cherished by Thousands of Citizens—Giant Naval and Military Parade— Premier and Leader of Opposi- tion Deliver Impressive Ad- dresses.

Citizens of St. John's turned out in thousands yesterday afternoon to pay tribute to the memory of our fallen heroes who sacrificed their young lives at the Battle of Beaumont Hamel on July 1st, 1916. Never in the history of this most loyal colony was there a more impressive scene than the one which was witnessed at the Colonial Building yesterday. The beautiful building, with its great pillars of white granite and large open space in front, was handsomely decorated with the flags of the Allied nations, while placed between the pillars on the top of the stone steps were the German machine guns captured by the Nfld. Regiment on Oct. 13th, 1914. At 3.30 o'clock the different units assembled at the C. L. B. Armory and proceeded to the Colonial Building in the following order:

Wounded Soldiers with Nurses in automobiles.
C. L. B. Band.
Royal Naval Reservists, with muskets and cutlasses.
Returned Volunteers.
Regimental Drum and Bugle Band.
The Men of the Regiment.
C. C. C. Bugle Band.
Forestry Companies.
C. C. C. Band.
C. L. B. Bugle Band.
Church Lads' Brigade.
Catholic Cadet Corps.
Newfoundland Highlanders.

Along the route of march the C.L.B. and C.C.C. bands discoursed patriotic airs, while the bugle and drum bands of the Regiment and brigades sounded marching steps for the boys.

At four o'clock the mammoth parade, accompanied by thousands of citizens, arrived at the Parliament grounds and on passing through the gates lined up in close formation in front of the steps, preference being given the returned veterans while the brigades and addresses, an account of the rear. Spurt of Police Grimes, with a squad of policemen, kept the grounds free till the arrival of the parade.

On the steps were: Rt. Hon. Sir E. P. Morris, K.C.M.G., P.C., Premier, Dr. W. F. Lloyd, Leader of the Opposition, both of whom gave eloquent and impressive addresses, an account of which we give below; the Chief Justice Sir W. H. Horwood, Justices Johnson and Kent of the Supreme Court, Hon. T. McDevitt, President of the Legislative Council, Members of the House of Assembly, Clergymen of the different denominations, Mayor Gosling and the City Council, the President of the friendly nations, Commander MacDermott and officers of H.M.S. Briton, Major Montgomerie and officers of the Newfoundland Regiment, Commanding Officers of the City Brigades, a number of ladies prominent in patriotic work, representatives of the press and other prominent citizens.

Outside the grounds in the Banermer Park was the largest gathering of citizens ever seen to assemble at the Colonial Building.

Immediately on the units being called to attention, the whole assembly was addressed by the Premier.

He said that this celebration was for the purpose of insuring that the anniversary of the battle of Beaumont Hamel would be cherished by future generations in Newfoundland. He read the following messages from His Excellency the Governor who was then attending a memorial service at Burgeo:—
To Rt. Hon. Sir Edward Morris, P.C., St. John's.

I deeply regret that I cannot attend in person the Commemorative Services at St. John's on July 1st. I shall be present at the service at Burgeo on that day. It has been my ardent hope that July 1st might be adopted as the National Holiday of Newfoundland to commemorate that morning when the soldier heroes of the Ancient Colony laid down their lives in the land of their birth. Now they have greater right to be proud of themselves because of the valiant lads who fell this day. Last year, there were other dates and other battles not one whit less honourable, but July 1st, 1916, is the day when we entered the brotherhood of Fame.

W. E. DAVIDSON, Governor.
To the officers commanding the 1st and 2nd Battalions in France and Ayr:—
To the Officers Commanding the 1st and 2nd Battalions in France and Ayr:—
In commemorating the first anniversary of July 1st, 1916, when the Regiment achieved everlasting fame and glory, the people of Newfoundland send greetings and good wishes to all ranks overseas, confident that

ANTI-CONSCRIPTIONISTS WORST-ED AT WINNIPEG.

WINNIPEG, Man., To-day.
Police intervention averted a riot scene at an anti-conscription meeting to-day. Four arrests by the city police followed a free for all fight in which the anti-conscriptionists were quickly driven from the neighborhood of Market Square, where speeches were to have been delivered. At least fifty per cent. of the crowd were alien enemies, according to Lieut. Campbell of the Intelligence Dept. Clubs were freely used during the fight. Hammers and rotten eggs also played a destructive part. One foreigner was caught in the act of stabbing with a clasp knife a well known returned soldier, Alderman Queen, who attempted to speak, made a successful get-away, although not without being mauled. All of the arrested men were anti-conscriptionists. They were released on bail, no charges being preferred. The crowd's attendance was estimated at 9,000.

GERMANS UNDER-DOGS AT LENS.
LONDON, To-day.
Reuter's special correspondent with the British Army in France, describing the operations around Lens, says: Down to Thursday evening we have been systematically pushing the Germans in a northeasterly direction, by which time our line roughly ran from the fringe of Cote-de-Moulin across the Souchez River and the Lens-Arras Road through an old trench system front of Elu-Du-Lavette, bending round so as to follow the trend of the Meneourt-Avon switch. Double operations which developed on Thursday evening, although distinct in their phases, were part of the same tactical scheme. The enemy's withdrawal from the outer defences of Lens had tended to weaken the resisting powers of the Oppy line between that place and Souchez, and so occasion was taken to strike a blow here with quite satisfactory results. As a consequence of the activity of the last few days around the Lens salient and south thereof we made a substantial gain of territory and have taken something like 400 prisoners and about 20 machine guns and killed or wounded a large number of the enemy. Our own casualties in these operations have been slight relative to the number engaged and the success achieved. On the whole the enemy have not been fighting well, although there have been instances to the contrary. He knows he is going backwards, and whether he is told this is according to the plan on whether he has the perception to realize he is being beaten back, the result must equally be to produce an under-dog feeling. More than once the occupants of trenches and posts have bolted on the advance of our men and even the order of the higher command to reorganize man-power to the utmost can scarcely justify such tactics. The spirit of our troops is indomitable and beyond praise. Here is a little episode which suffices to prove that these are not words of extravagant eulogy: A little advanced post south of the Cojeul River, held by fifteen of our men, was the object of a surprise attack during the darkest hour of Wednesday night. Following upon a sudden shower of bombs which wounded ten of the little garrison, twenty German sturtruppen (storming troops) rushed the post. The remaining five, standing back to back, made a stand that recalls Rorke's Drift. The noise of bombing and firing brought up reinforcements, and the Germans took to their heels, leaving two prisoners in the hands of the five defenders. The Germans took back with them none but their own wounded.

BRITISH BAG FOR JUNE.
LONDON, To-day.
The enemy's artillery has shown considerable activity during the day in the Scarpe Valley. In the neighborhood of Lens and north of the River Lys, says a report from British headquarters in France, issued last night, 17 prisoners were captured as a result of our attack on the north bank of the Souchez River. During the month of June we have taken in the course of our successful operations against Messines and Wytschate Ridge and on other parts of our front 8,686 German prisoners, including 175 officers, and have also captured 67 guns, including two heavy guns, 102 trench mortars, 354 machine guns, besides great quantities of other material.

WAR REVIEW.
LONDON, To-day.
The soldiers of the new Russia have assumed the aggressive for the first time since the revolution of last March. Russian troops have begun an attack on an extensive scale along a front of 18½ miles in the region of Brzezany, in Galicia, and Russian troops have stormed the German positions. Berlin says the Russians suffered heavy losses and were compelled to retire before the German fire. The attack was made between the Upper Stripa and the Narayuvka River, a tributary of the Gnila Lipa in the section southeast of Lemberg, the Galician capital, where artillery firing has been heavy recently. The Russians also made night attacks on both sides of Brzezany and near Zwyzn, and Berlin reports that assaults between the Zlota Lipa and the Narayuvka have brought on new battles between the opposing forces. The artillery arm of the Russian forces has been active, and from a Berlin report it is learned that an intense duel has been in progress from the region of Brzezany to as far northward as the middle Stokhod, in Volhynia, a distance of about 175 miles. Berlin declares that the Russian attacks, which it says were powerful, were brought about through the pressure of the leading Entente Powers. The region of the Karayuvka and Upper Stripa Rivers has been the scene of much bitter fighting since General Brusiloff ended his victorious campaign last year. Brzezany is one of the keys to Lemberg. Field Marshal Haig continues to tighten his grip on Lens.

FRENCH STEAMER SUNK.
PARIS, To-day.
The French steamer Himalaya, of the Messageries Maritimes, with 204 passengers and crew was sunk as the result of an explosion in the Mediterranean; 176 persons were saved. The steamer Himalaya (correct) was 5,620 tons gross and was last reported at Marseilles.

MAY MEAN SOMETHING.
AMSTERDAM, To-day.
Emperor Charles, of Austria-Hungary, and Empress Zita have arrived at Munich. They were received by the King and Queen of Bavaria.

COURAGEOUS FOOD CONTROLLER.
LONDON, To-day.
Lord Rhonda, Food Controller, speaking at Cardiff last night, said he had a suspicion that Premier Lloyd George, who had conscripted him for his new post very much against his will, chose him for an almost impossible job after so many better men had refused because he knew that he had the hide of a rhinoceros. "I am going there," he added, "and let there be no mistake about it, as the guardian and trustee of the consumer, and particularly of the poor consumer." Lord Rhonda said he was not satisfied with the powers he had and was going to take more powers. He is determined to put a stop to profiteering and speculation in food, but he warned his hearers that it was impracticable to bring down prices to anything like standard before the war.

PUNITIVE EXPEDITION INTO AFGHANISTAN.
LONDON, To-day.
The return of a Punitive expedition from the district of Waziristan in the northwest frontier province on the border between India and Afghanistan is reported in an official statement. The expedition encountered was negligible. Our airplanes raided Makin and Marabi with considerable effect. The Mohammedan tribesmen who lived in northwest India gave the British Government much trouble early in 1915 and in November, 1915, by breaking through the hills on raids into the northwest frontier province. On each occasion British dispersed the hostile forces.

AUSTRIANS ON THE DEFENSIVE.
LONDON, To-day.
Austrian troops in Eastern Galicia are on the defensive against Russian attacks, says an official statement issued to-day from Austro-Hungarian General Headquarters. Russian attacks south and southeast of Brzezany, near Janitsch and west of Zalozov, the statement adds, were repulsed.

CHINESE UNREST.
LONDON, To-day.
General Chng Haun, says a despatch from Peking, has informed President Li Yuan Hung that he must retire, as the Manchou Emperor Hsin Tung has been restored to the throne. Another Reuter Despatch from Peking says that Tsun Tang issued a mandate on Saturday morning announcing his succession to the throne of China.

A STEP FORWARD IN GREECE.
ATHENS, To-day.
Premier Venizelos has invited the chiefs of the Greek Army Corps at Peloponnesus to come to Athens. Most of the officers have accepted the invitation and are arriving in the Capital. The Premier will discuss with them the question of sending forces to Macedonia.

RETURN GREEK WARSHIPS.
ATHENS, To-day.
An agreement has been reached whereby the French will return to Greece the vessels of the Greek light flotilla stationed at Salamis, ten miles west of Athens.
