Speech of King George

At Closing of Imperial Parliament.

LONDON, To-day. Parliament was prorogued to-day. The King will read the Speech from the Throne on February 12th. The Commons will read the Speech from the Throne on February 13th. The King emphasized that the first and foremost duty of the Allies was the successful prosecution of the war. He said that the Allies were united in their determination to win the war. He said that the Allies were united in their determination to win the war. He said that the Allies were united in their determination to win the war.

MYSTERIOUS EXPLOSION.

MONTREAL, To-day. Through the explosion of a mysterious package in an American Express Company's office here to-night. Theophile Laberge, employee, was killed, his body being badly burned and riddled with shot and small particles of steel. Geo. Gagner, another employee, escaped with injuries. Interior of Express Office is wrecked by the explosion. Nothing could be learned as to the fatal package or where it came from.

INTER-ALLIED SHIPPING COM- MITE.

WASHINGTON, To-day. The acceptance by the Allies of a plan to turn over the direction of all Transatlantic tonnage to a ship-control committee, recently created, was announced to-day by Chairman Hurley of the Shipping Board with the assurance that this promises a complete unification of the Atlantic shipping operations. The committee comprising P. A. S. Franklin, H. Raymond and Sir Connor O'Rourke was named at a conference of the Government Department, heads of shipping interests and representatives of the Allies. Sir Connor was selected to represent on committee inter-Allied chartering conference contingent on Allies acceptance of a plan of allocation of tonnage. Word has been received that the Allied Governments are heartily in favor of proposal. Vice Chairman Stephens of Shipping Board, who is to go to London, will sit with chartering conference as American representative assisting on the other side in instructions regarding distribution of ships from a general pool. Allocation of ships in pool will be in hands of control committee, creation of committee, said Mr. Hurley to-night, is one of practical result of inter-Allied War Council recently held in Paris. A move will increase the efficiency which can be obtained from every ship available. It enables ships to be loaded and unloaded without delay and ships can be moved promptly. It will be equivalent to addition of considerable new tonnage and committee will be left free to coordinate heads of various Government departments effecting such interchange of tonnage and traffic as may be practicable with Allied Governments.

ONE PARTY GOT WITHIN 20 YARDS OF ENEMY

Wire when it was discovered and heavily bombed. Enemy also opening barrage on our lines but despite vigorous opposition and strong wire. One officer and two men succeeded rushing position, the other party got within ten yards enemy's line before discovering it then bombed its way into trenches. Germans withdrew before raiders, but maintained stiff opposition. Two hours later after getting support from artillery bombardment, German raiders came across No Man's Land in strength at Mercur-Pavlov sectors. They met with such a vigorous reception from our rifles and machine guns that they were forced to retire with heavy casualties, they left five prisoners in our hands. At 3.30 a.m. today enemy bombed St. Enile sector with gas shells and high explosives, but no attack developed.

UPS AND DOWNS BUT WINNING.

WASHINGTON, To-day. Secretary Daniels said today United States and Allies were winning fight against German submarines. We are having our ups and downs he said, but light is being won.

AMERICAN STEAMER SUNK.

NEW YORK, To-day. Loss of American steamer Alamo owned by Garland S. S. Corporation and resultant loss six lives was reported in shipping circles here to-day. Alamo which left New York Jan. 17, was torpedoed yesterday off English coast, it was reported. She was ship 3,000 tons; no Americans were lost. Ship had crew 55 and naval gun complement 23 men. Commander E. E. Johnson. (By Walter Wilson, Canadian Press Correspondent.)

BRITISH WARSHIPS ESCORTED TORPEDOES TUSCANIA.

WASHINGTON, To-day. Troops concerned chiefly of detachments of Michigan and Wisconsin National Guardsmen were travelling on the Tuscania, British steamer, under the convoy of British warships. The President, Secretary Baker and in fact all the officials here were up late waiting for news of the ship. The briefest despatches were received on the liner, even the time was missing, but it is assumed that it occurred early in the morning, as the first message was filed at London at 3 p.m., probably within an hour after the relief ship reached the Irish Coast.

EXTRA AUTHORITY TO PRESIDENT WILSON.

WASHINGTON, To-day. Almost coincident with Secretary of War Dyer's announcement today the Senate Military Committee today for cross-examination upon his recent statement as to what America is doing in the war, the Administration's answer to the congressional agitation for a War Cabinet and Munition Director was given by the introduction in the Senate of a bill transmitted by President Wilson which would give the President blanket authority to reorganize and co-ordinate all federal departments, bureaus, agencies, officials and personnel.

PASSAGE OF REPRESENTATION BILL IN CONGRESS.

LONDON, To-day. A little clash occurred between the Commons and Lords to-day over the acceptance of the Lords amendments to the Representation of the People Bill, and for a time threatened to wreck the bill. After some lively passages, however, in the Commons, a compromise was reached acceptable to both Houses and the bill passed all its stages and received the Royal sanction. The compromise is that a proportional representation bill be passed experimentally in one hundred constituencies selected by special commissioners, while the principle of the alternative vote has been struck out of the bill altogether.

MORE SINKINGS WITH LOSS OF LIFE.

LONDON, To-day. (Via Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—In the House of Commons, replying to Mr. Houston, Hon. H. J. Macnamara, Under Secretary of the Admiralty, stated that out of crew of twenty, and twenty-five military and naval passengers, 14 and 18 were respectively lost, owing to the enemy recently sinking a Channel passenger ship bound for a French port. He also stated the captain was the only survivor out of twenty-five aboard. Further questioned, the Secretary stated that the steamer carried 400 head of cattle and 200 sheep. Mr. Houston asked whether the steamer had been sunk in Liverpool Bay on January 28th, with a loss of 12 lives, 150 head cattle, 361 sheep and 188 pigs. Mr. Macnamara admitted that the details of the cargo were as stated. He added that the percentage of losses of vessels making the voyage from Ireland to Britain was extremely small compared with the number of voyages.

AERIAL ACTIVITIES.

PARIS, To-day. The war office announcement last night says. The day was calm along the whole front save in the region of Auberville, where both armies displayed a certain amount of activity. Two surprise attacks this morning by the Germans in the region of the Bois Desfosses, were repulsed. On February 5th one of our bombing squadrons flew over Saarbruck, dropping 3,610 (about 3½ tons) kilograms of projectiles. Attacked by several groups of enemy airplanes, our crews accepted battle and brought down three German machines, and then returned intact to their own lines. It is confirmed that two enemy machines, reported as having been seriously damaged on Feb. 3rd and 4th were really brought down, thus bringing up respectively to 5 and 9 for these days the victories of our pilots.

BRAVED HUN THREATS.

AN ATLANTIC PORT, To-day. The Holland-American steamship Nieuw Amsterdam, January 25th, after a long period of delay in that harbor, arrived here to-day. The steamer had on board a large number of passengers.

IN THE EAST.

EASTERN THEATRE, To-day. Patrol encounters occurred along the Lower Struma in the region of Doiran and west of the Vaidar. There were intermittent artillery actions west of Lake Presha. An enemy attempt to raid one of our trenches north of Lescovar, suffered a complete check.

HUNS BOMB VENICE.

ROME, To-day. Hostile airplanes continue to carry out raids against Venice, Mestre and Treviso, these cities being again bombed last night. According to official statement from the Italian Headquarters, there were no casualties. Patrols are reported as showing remarkable activity in capturing prisoners. Increased artillery activity is reported around the Trenta Narrows and along the Piave.

NO GREAT ANXIETY.

LONDON, To-day. General Frederick B. Marples, Chief Director of Military Operations at the War Office, to-day resumed his weekly interview with the Associated Press. The chief event of military importance in the past month, he said, has been continued movement of German troops to the west front. We long ago calculated the rate at which this movement could be carried on and it is not going on any faster than needed. The Germans are now stronger on the west front than at any time during the war, but they are not yet numerically equal to the French and British forces. That being so I don't know that the situation need at present cause any great anxiety.

HOME FORCES TEND TO BE REDUCED.

LONDON, To-day. The Earl of Derby, Secretary for War, to-day notified Field Marshal, Viscount French, Commander-in-Chief, of his decision to reduce the numbers of meat, sugar and tea for the home forces, except youths under nineteen years training for abroad, when the whole nation is being asked to reduce food consumption in the interests of our armies, says War Secretary. I think you will agree with me that the army at home will expect equally to be asked to make certain sacrifices. The burden cannot be allowed to fall wholly on women and children and civilian workers.

BRITISH BIRMEN ACTIVE.

LONDON, To-day. British aerial operations are reported in an official statement issued last evening, as follows: Nearly five tons of bombs were dropped to-day on hostile targets. Five German airplanes were brought down in air fighting and four were driven down out of control. A hostile observation balloon was brought down. Four of our airplanes are missing. One and a half tons of bombs were dropped at night on an airfield southeast of Cambrai and on enemy billets.

While abroad Mr. Cashin will negotiate for a loan for the Dominion, authorized by the Legislature last year.

Lost a Fine Horse.

Mr. John Ellard, of Torbay, a well known cabman of the East End, lost a fine horse on Friday morning last. The evening previous he put the animal in the stable and to all appearances it was in good condition. On going to the stable the next morning Mr. Ellard was surprised to find the animal dead, it having perished during the night. The horse was highly prized by the owner and the loss to him is a serious one. It is supposed that colic was the cause of death.

Strange Doings of Coastal Mail Clerk.

Many business houses in the city were somewhat surprised a few days ago to receive a number of letters from parties on the West Coast dating as far back as November and December, 1916. The Telegram, on hearing of several instances, inquired of the Postmaster General and learned from him a few facts in relation to the irregularities that was being systematically carried on by an official of the coastal mail service who for a number of years has been mail officer on the s.s. Glenoce. For over a year the Postal Department failed on several occasions to receive prompt replies to letters written to officials and other persons along the southwest coast, while business houses here who communicated with their dealers had a similar experience. Complaints at last became so numerous that the P. M. G. ordered an investigation. On examining the mail officer's quarters on board the Glenoce a mail sack was discovered which contained over 600 ordinary letters, the most of which were stamped as having been registered and 160 number of registered letters and 160 letters addressed to the Postmaster General. Strange to say, of the letters had been opened and showed any sign of having been tampered with, and so far as is known no registered package has been entirely lost. The money for the unstamped letters has been paid in to the Accountant's Office of the G. P. O. by the unfortunate clerk, who has made an open confession of his misdoings to the P. M. G. The mail clerk in question is a married man and has a wife and two children to support. Dr. Robinson in having to report the matter to the Government deeply regrets the unfortunate happening.

WIN THE WAR DATE STAMP.—A new die similar to that used in the United States bearing the following words has been attached to the electric stamping machines at the G.P.O.
