Ten Nights in a Barroom

WORLD'S MOST POPULAR COMING TO THE NICKEL

The management of the Nickel Theatre takes pleasure in announcing that it will present to the St. John's public, very shortly, "Ten nights in a Bar-Room," the greatest heart-interest drama the world has ever known. Into Cedarville, peaceful, happy, prosperous, comes the enterprising saloon keeper anxious to open a new drinking place. It is not long before the glittering mahogany, brass, glass, nickel, silver, began to exercise a magnetic effect on the thirsty souls of the lumber mill, upon which prosperity of Cedarville relies. Simon Slade's saloon changes all the happiness of Cedarville. Alcohol is the new devil that enters the Garden of Eden; there is strife, jealousy, brutishness, sloth, drunkenness, arson, all the vices let loose over Simon Slade's mahogany counter. You will find yourself quoting Shakespeare: "Reason has led to brutish beasts." In this picture is a beautifully heart-touching story that is sure to bring tears to the most hard-hearted spectator. "Ten nights in a Bar-Room" is the story that reformed millions. It will be shown at the Nickel shortly.

Young Bride Suicides.

Mrs. Margaret Gallagher, the 19-year-old bride of two months, ended a gay night of rounds of Hoboken and Union Hill, N.J., cabarets in the company of Thomas Cassidy, a sailor before her marriage to Andrew Gallagher, and another young couple, by leaping into the North River from the Hoboken ferryboat, Lackawanna, just before it drew into its West 23rd St. slip at 5 o'clock in the morning, May 7th. Cassidy leaped into the river in an attempt to rescue her, and both were drawn by whirlpool currents, caused by a reversed sidewheel of the ferryboat, and drowned. Their bodies have not been recovered.

THE SHAVERS' LUXURY

The "Kropp" Razor.

Every Razor is guaranteed by the manufacturers and only the very best refined and highly-tempered English steel is used in its manufacture; and the flexibility of the blade renders shaving a luxury even to those with stubborn beards or tender skins. The "Kropp" shaves close, clean, delightfully smooth—almost by its own weight. Every man who shaves himself should investigate the "Kropp".
