every day

Government setting
smaller and smaller.
Bennett Small is going to Burgeo.
Bennett will never come back elect.

Bennett will be with the rest of the party in riding the Colony of the Squires control.
The menace of Coakerism will come and on polling day.

Bennett and Better Times will come the day the count is finished.
Bennett Small is going to Burgeo. He leaves just fourteen other candidates to be secured in order to fill the districts.

Vote for Bennett and an honest Dealer!
Bennett's party will conclude the proposition with the greatest possible benefits and the least possible obligations.

The true blood of Newfoundland is in the time of trouble and danger. Men of ability and independence, actuated by motives of pure concern for Newfoundland's happy plight.

The Squires' outfit will always be as "Newfoundland's most famous Government."

They fiddled while Rome burnt! They played politics and self while country sank lower and lower.

Twenty millions of dollars in forty years of Squires' rule. And our nation is only a quarter of a million.

Undermanliness was rampant. Squires has failed—failed with the stigma of deceit and deception.

People know that Squires cannot back, and the people will not let Squires do act come back.

John's will start the ball rolling six men sure for Bennett and Better Times.

Bennett represents true Newfoundland! Honest, sincere, wholesome, Newfoundland!

Bennett already has the strongest political party in the history of the country. They are still flocking to him.

This is the essence of true leadership. Think it over, electors! The Bennett leadership has massacred the hopes and aspirations in the last three weeks.

The "travelling circus" is finished. Coakerism is doomed.

With Bennett pinning the Squires' gang to the mat they are yelling "Bennett is not the leader."

WATCH THEM WIN, BOYS!

With Squires-Coaker-Collishaw-Bennett control, the worst is yet to come.

Squires is trapped and knows it! He was afraid to open the House! He is furthermore, he's afraid of the Bennett Party!

WATCH SQUIRES WRIGGLE!

GALLAGHER & SHEEHAN.
Master Gallagher! Oh! Master Gallagher!

He's a column in the "Agitate" headed "Snaps."

Thoughts so awfully thick meaning is quite punk. He is written by one of Joe's chaps.

Mr. Sheehan! Now Master Sheehan!

Mean to know exactly what you mean.

Written by Revop Bob "cutman" on the job. Genuinely, Master Gallagher? Genuinely, Master Sheehan.

Bennett's party embracing every creed and class need have no worry.

They thrive and grow to their opponent's disgust. Bennett Here There and Everywhere.

Quips for the Times.

"Don't swap horses in the middle of a stream," quotes the personal organ.

If you can get a better steed, why not? It is not as dangerous as clinging to a broken-winded and colic-troubled beast.

Change horses by all means.

In 1919 we were in the midst of the Re-Construction stream and astride a good sound animal who could swim to beat Helen Kellerman.

The Squires organ then advised a change of horses. Day after day it cried out for a change.

Well, we took the leap and our present deplorable state of stagnation and staggering debt is the sad sequel.

We exchanged big-breasted lusty swimmers for the chicken-breasted long-eared variety of thisle eaters.

We are going to cut the long-eared quadrupeds adrift to "sink or swim with Coaker."

If the crowd (?) that attended the Squires meeting last Thursday evening had no more intelligence than the boob who wrote of the barometer being up to blood heat, then Heaven pity poor Squires.

We—that is the Bennett crowd—measure heat by means of the thermometer. For coming storms and change we consult our barometer.

The Advocate crowd don't seem to know which is which. Poor Squires, what a clan he has supporting him.

O Minerva can we invoke you for Terra Nova's sake to visit Messrs. Squires, Campbell and Fitzgibbon just to teach them something of the secrets of political union and government.

Can their hybrid faculties imbibe any wisdom?

"Watchman what of the night?" queries the personal organ.

Do you mean the night Campbell "spilled the beans" in the West End?

Well, he certainly made an awful hash of it.

Said the original Humber Proposition was improper.

We said the same thing and were threatened with being crushed by Campbell and Coaker.

Murder will out; so will the truth.

Hooray for the truth.

If the Coaker crowd were jugglers and made as many false starts with knife tossing as they make with words, not a finger would they have left by now.

People with weather cock heads, as Huxley calls them, may be carried away by the windy declamations and promises of the Coaker-Squires crew but not men of discernment.

SQUIRES' ADDRESS TO HIS CAHOBOTS.

"Come on brave soldiers, doubt not of the day; And that once gotten, doubt not of large pay."

June 28th, 1234, the rats and mice by which Hamelin was infested were allured, it is said, by a piper to a contiguous river in which they were all drowned.

Valid! Valid!

TO JOE.

"From roots hard hazels, and from scious rise Tail ash and taller oak that mates the skies."

Curved panels and tiered and scalloped treatments are conspicuous at recent social events. They vie quite successfully with the draped effects.

WATER STREET.

It is said that there are St. John's ladies who leave a sink full of dirty dishes to play bridge.

We wish that the man who divided the day into hours had made the lunch hour longer, declares Billy Smart.
