

Cochrane Street S. S. Anniversary

The Anniversary services of Cochrane Street Sunday School were held under both sad and favorable circumstances yesterday—and because death had visited the home of the Superintendent, Mr. A. C. Peters, on Saturday night and taken home the only son Eric, which prevented Mr. Peters' appearance at the services; favourable on account of weather conditions permitting even the youngest child to attend and not warm enough to attract the older ones elsewhere. The morning service was conducted by Rev. D. M. Nichol, of the Congregational Church, who gave a very interesting talk to the children. One of the preacher's illustrations on happiness seemed to impress them greatly. Mr. Nichol was happy to be there and the children were equally as happy to hear him. We have no doubt that the Rev. gentleman's talk will not soon be forgotten. Mr. C. Hatcher rendered a solo very acceptably.

In the afternoon a special service was held presided over by Mr. George Primes, M.H.A. Special items were given by the Primary and Beginners' Department, readings by Ruth Tremblay and Miss Bishop, solos by Miss Helen Soper and Wylie, and the address by the pastor illustrated on a blackboard. A large congregation assembled at the Evening Service, and the singing of the hymns by the scholars led by the Church choir, certainly left an impression, while the solo "Crossing the Bar" by Fred Wylie was faultlessly rendered. The Pastor, Rev. C. H. Johnson, preached a special sermon to the children which was most interesting. The thanks of the school is due to A. A. Mews, C.M.G., who trained the scholars in the singing of the hymns. Mr. Marion Lawrence, who died on May 2nd last, visited the Sunday School some years ago, in the old Church, and left a copy of the School song that was sung at two services yesterday. The words are as follows: The inner side of every cloud is bright and shining; Therefore turn my clouds about and always wear them inside out to show the lining.

Belvedere Garden Party

EVERYTHING IN READINESS FOR WEDNESDAY.

All preparations for the annual Belvedere Garden Party which takes place on Wednesday have been completed and those in charge are looking forward to a busy afternoon. Mesdames T. P. Hickey, Lahey, P. Hickey, Warren, Beams, Wood, Kelly, Long, Collins, Smyth, Merner, Byrne, Jones, James and Misses Berrigan and Carroll. The orphans' table where others may take on or more orphans as guests is under the supervision of Miss Brice, Mrs. T. J. O'Rourke and Mrs. J. J. Duff. Mrs. J. O'Rourke will conduct an afternoon tea table. Mrs. C. J. O'Keefe and the Misses O'Neill have some big surprises for anglers in the Fish pond, while refreshments and candy will be dispensed by Mrs. H. Peddie, Mrs. T. O'Mara, Mrs. Peter O'Mara, Mrs. W. Payne, and Miss May O'Mara. The Flower Stall will be supervised by Misses Warren and Sullivan and the post office by Misses Baxter and a treat is in store for those who visit the mystery Bower presided over by Miss Kathleen Keenan. The wheels of fortune will be run by Messrs. Peter and Leo O'Mara, Sam and John Murphy. The O.C.C. and Mount Cashel Bands will dispense the latest music.

ATTENDED DIVINE SERVICE AT KIRK.

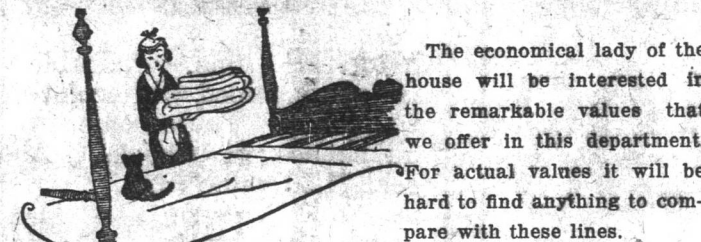

The Newfoundland Highlanders, led by their pipes and drums in command of Lt.-Col. W. H. Herder, attended yesterday morning and attended Divine Service at the Presbyterian Church, the preacher being Mr. Power, M.A. After the service the parade returned to Headquarters via Gower, Cochrane, Millers and Harvey Road where the commanding officer addressed the troops on their excellent appearance and presence in such large numbers. Throughout the line of march to and from the Armoury the kilts were the centre of attraction. The turn-out was one of the largest seen in years and officers and men of all ranks are to be congratulated on the excellent showing made.

Come hear Mount Cashel Band the S.P.A. Garden Party, Sunday afternoon, on Forest Road, Cook's Lawn, Forest Hill, June 14, 21.
