PLAY THE GAME.

Play the game, and play it fairly!
Meet the odds against you squarely.
Know the rules which men have fashioned.
And be governed by them, too;
When the other fellow's gaining
Don't start whining or complaining.
Play the game a little harder,
Stand right up and see it through!

If in team play you are entered
Let your every thought be centered
On contributing your efforts
To the glory of the whole.
For if you're a plummy seeker,
By that much the team is weaker,
'Tis the victory you're after,
Not the credit for the goal.

Play the game and take the bruising.
Play it well, though winning, losing.
Be too big for pretty meanness.
Be too big to fowl a foe;
Put your heart and soul right in it.
Fight with all your strength to win it.
But don't think you should be favored
And be spared from every blow.

Life's a game! How oft we say it!
We're the children who must play it.
Gain the loss forever blest;
By the rules which guide us all;
Give your best to home and neighbor.
At the day's task brave labor,
Have a creed to shape your conduct
By the right thing stand or fall!

Market News

Codfish—All the markets except Spain have weakened more or less the past week. This is mainly attributable to cover-supply. The increase in consumption that is likely to set in during this month, will very likely relieve this condition of affairs and strengthen prices back to December figures. This week Oporto consumed 2,000 qts. roundly more than the previous week. The same rate of increase is expected in other markets coming on to the Lenten season. The Brazil market is said to have declined two shillings this week, but may recover on short supply for the spring. The exports this week were as follows: By S.S. Rosalind, 2,578 qts. to New York and Halifax, from various shippers, for transportation to the West Indies. By S.S. Julius Holmblad 26,970 qts. from the Norwegian Products Co. to Oporto, Seville, Genoa, and Patras. By S.S. Cecil Jr., 4,073 qts. from P.E.T. Trading Co., Port Union to Pernambuco. By General Trenchard, 3,833 qts. from the estate of Harris & Co., Grand Bank to Oporto. By S.S. Gertrude, 2,740 qts. to Oporto, from G. M. Barr. Total 39,994 qts.

Common Cod Oil—Many have been looking for an advance in this commodity, owing to the great shortage in menhaden oil produced in the United States last year. To any person looking to see fancy prices for common cod oil in the near future we need only refer them to the present condition of tanners and the leather trade in general throughout the United States. Things are in a deplorable condition owing to many substitutes for leather, and the impossibility of dealers getting adequate prices. There has been an over-production of boots and shoes in America, and nothing but bankruptcy is staring many of the largest manufacturers in the face throughout the United States.

Cod Liver Oil—Information regarding prices by the last foreign mail is very conflicting. The London market reports a decline in prices owing to Norwegian exporters forcing the sale of last year's oil. The New York market reports an advance owing to an exceedingly good demand and a very short supply at hand. One point we would like to emphasize is that never since cod liver oil has become a marketable article in the trade has it received such attention from the scientists, doctors and the drug trade in general, as it is receiving to-day. Compliments on the exceptionally fine quality put up in Newfoundland are being continually received. One man writes I never had any idea you put up such a tasteless and odorless production. There is as much difference between day and night as what we received from Newfoundland a few years ago. The exceeding strict Government inspection, and the efforts of the refiners themselves to produce the very best oil, and to allow no thought of gain to influence them in allowing a second class article to be mixed with the best is now being recognized by foreign buyers. If these efforts for high class production are only kept up we will soon reap the reward we are looking for in higher price and large orders.
