The "Local" begs to tender an expression of his gratitude to Dr. Briggs, the Chiropodist, for having relieved him of a corn, which people in a crowd had an ugly habit of treading upon. It was of no use whatever, except as a natural barometer, for it always made vigorous leaping before a storm. On this account it may be missed, but its absence will not be regretted. The operation was quick, painless, and was not succeeded by any inconvenience. All who are corned, not in the head but in the feet, will find that Dr. Briggs is the man for their money.—Guelph Mercury. Dr. J. Briggs has established a branch office at No. 6 King Street, West, Toronto. His wonderful remedy for corns, bunions, ingrowing nails, &c., the Modern Curative is sold by druggists and country merchants generally. For sale by E. Harvey & Co., Guelph.

A locomotive exploded at the Grand Trunk station, at Ridgeway, on Saturday and two passengers in a passing train were killed.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.
In the whole history of medical discoveries no remedy has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the numerous affections of the throat, lungs and chest, as this long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of cold. Fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptoms of pulmonary complaint.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONY.
From the Rev. Francis Lobdell, Pastor of the South Congregational Church, Bridgeport, Connecticut:
"I consider it a duty which I owe to suffering humanity to bear testimony to the virtues of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. I have used it—when I have had occasion for any remedy for coughs, colic, or sore throat—for many years, and never in a single instance has it failed to relieve and cure me. I have frequently been very hoarse on Saturdays, and looked forward to the delivery of two sermons on the following day with sad anticipations, but by a liberal use of the Balsam my hoarseness has invariably been removed, and I have preached without difficulty. I commend it to my brethren in the ministry, and to public speakers generally, as a certain remedy for the throat troubles to which we are peculiarly exposed." Prepared by SEITH W. FOWLE & SON, 15 Tremont Street, Boston, and for sale by druggists generally.

Grace's Celebrated Salve.
From Mr E Tucker, Depot Master at Selisbury, Mass.—"I have been troubled for years with a bad humor; sometimes outwardly and sometimes inwardly. During the past summer it manifested itself more than usual outwardly, and I used your Salve. All signs of it have since disappeared, without affecting inwardly, indicating, I think, the eradicating nature of the Salve."
