Jail Haitian Leader

New York, N.Y., Aug.—(By The Associated Negro Press)—According to information received by Joseph Mirault, New York correspondent of the "Courier Haitien", Jolibois Fils, nationalist Haitian leader, has been thrown into jail again by the United States marines for having denounced in the press the American seizure of Haitian institutions and the expulsion therefrom of natives.

General Russell, in charge of American interests in the islands claims to be carrying out orders from Washington. Telegrams have been sent to President Coolidge and Secretary of State Hughes, acquainting them with the treatment accorded Fils and other Haitians.

Educational Club Sues For $100,000

St. Louis, Mo., Aug.—(By The Associated Negro Press)—Through its attorney, Roy Lowe, The Original Great Western Club has filed suit in the circuit court against the five commanderies of the Knights Templar in this city, charging that the knights, on July 14, gave a boat excursion, using the name of the Original Great Western Club and then refused to let members of the club to enter the boat.

According to poster advertisements of the lodges, the dancing was to be under the supervision of the Great Western Club. The officers of the club now declare that the commanderies made profit from the use of the name of social organization and caused it to suffer a loss of prestige when its members were refused admission. The Original Great Western Club is principally interested in educational activities.

Boys Stage Battle in Reformatory

Rahway, N.J., Aug.—The net result of a fight which followed a quarrel between a white boy and a colored boy in the reformatory here was, three boys shot, one probably fatally, and a guard injured. It was necessary to call guards and police reserves from this city and Woodbridge to quell the riot.

SOUTHERNER THREATENS TO SUE TOWN

Cape May, N.J., Aug.—(By the Associated Negro Press)—Because a motorcycle policeman assisted in his arrest for being disorderly, Frank Grady, a Virginian, has threatened to sue this town, claiming that the policeman, Edward Major, struck his wife. The officer denies the charge. Grady and two associates were fined $25 and costs in police court. They had been making a disturbance in front of a local hotel.

The woman who goes away for the summer faces two vital problems: What to do with the cat and what to do with her husband—to keep them from "running wild".
