nal Meeting of the Women's Chris

The number of infants in the flome at the last annual meeting was 5; since then 51 had been received; 9 were still in the Home. The rash donations for the Home during the year amounted to $87 18. The management was also indebted for gitts of clothing and furbiture and to Dr. Cl. T. Campbell for his attention upon the inmates. Religious services had been conducted during the year, in which Miss Freeman and the city clergymen assisted.

The Aged Women's Home continued still to flourish, the present matron having proved an efficient manager. During the year it was found necessary to increase the accommodation, and for this purpose a house adjacent to the Aged Men's Home was reuted. Three deaths accurred in the Home during were due to Dr. MacArthur for his attention to the sick. The number of inmates in the home at the last annual meeting was 12; 18 had been admitted since; remaining in the institution, 19.

The matron of the Aged Men's Home had given satisfaction. Four deaths have occurred during the year in this Home. The inmates numbered 19 at present, as against 16 one year ago; since the last meeting 22 had been admitted. Dr. Mitchell kindly gave his attention to those of the inmates requiring the same, for which the association desired to return thanks.

The members of the Relief Committee had attended to the mants of 86 families, and paid 751 visits during the past eighteen months. The hospital and jail had been regularly visited, and religious services had been held at each institution at regular intervals. The thanks of the association were tendered to the Ministerial Association and the Episconal Church ministers. were tendered to the Ministerial Associa tion and the Episcopal Church ministers for holding religious services in the several homes, as well as in the jail and hospital musical services. The city papers had also placed the association in their debt. The report concluded with an earnest request that all ladies eligible should join the as-
