The inmates of the Aged People's Home

The inmates of the Aged People's Home and of the Asylum for the Insane were treated in the regular holiday spirit. At the latter place, besides a splendid dinner, a Christmas tree was given at night.

IN THE CHURCHES

As is usual on Christmas Day, special services were held in a number of the city churches yesterday. At St. Andrew's a union service of the Presbyterian churches was held in the morning, at which Rev. W. J. Clarke presided, in the absence of Rev. James Ballantyne, and read the lesson. A number of the local Presbyterian ministers were present, but the only ones who addressed the large congregation were Revs. J. A. Murray and M. P. Talling. Both addresses were earnest, instructive, and suitable to the season, both showing the influence of Christ by the progress of Christianity since the early days of the world. The music was of an especially beautiful character, and was rendered by a full choir, under the direction of Mr. Charles Wheeler. The collection was in aid of the Protestant Orphans' Home.

The Methodist churches held their union service in the Dundas Center and the seating capacity of the building was taxed to its uttermost. Rev. Dr. Sanderson read the lesson, and addresses were delivered by Rev. Thomas Cullen and Rev. J. R. Guudy, the termer confining himself to the subject of "Associations of Christmas," while Mr.

Rev. Thomas Cullen and Rev. J. R. Gundy, the former confining himself to the subject of "Associations of Christmas," while Mr. Gundy took the important subject of "How we should treat God's gift to us." Mr. Percy Carroll sang the solo, "Jerusalem," in a most pleasting manner, and the choir also furnished several anthems.

Rev. Canon Richardson preached at the Christmas service at the Memorial Church. The interest in the services was increased by the singing of a solo by Mrs. Wigmore, of Toronto (nee Miss Ella Cole, of this city). This lady was a favorite in London's musical circles, and her voice is as rich as ever.

The Bishop of Huron was greeted by a large congregation at Cronyn Hall. The discourse was delivered in the bishop's usual eloquent manner, and the musical portion of the service was grand. Rev. Mr. Armitage, assistant rector at Christ Church, conducted the services in that edifice.

High mass was celebrated at St. Peter's at 6 and 10 o'clock in the morning, Rev. Father Tiernan efficiating at 6 o'clock. The music was of the usual superior character.

A deplorable accident in connection with Christmas tree festivities occurred about 9 o clock on Sunday night at the residence of Mr. Joseph Alussier, corner of Lorne avenue and Elizabeth street. Mr. Aliaster's sister-in-law, Mrs. Ammerman, was giving her son Bertie a Christmas tree. The tree was gaily lighted with condles, and Mrs. Ammerman was disguised as Santa Claus. She was literally bedecked with cotton batting and wore a pair of goggles to complete the disguise. To this latter fact is ascribed the accident. She was reaching into the tree when one of the candles ignited her arm. Those who witnessed the accident say that the inflam. candles ignited her arm. Those who witnessed the accident say that the inflammable material went of like a flash of cunpowder. The women shricked and were horror stricken. Mr. Allaster was the ally man in the house, and sprang at once to the rescue. With a pillow that had formed part of the make-up he fought the flames, and with his bare hands tore the burning clothing from the lady. When the flames were put out Mr. Allaster hurried out for assistance and Dr. Gardiner was soon in attendance. Mrs. Ammerman's injuries, though very painful, are not supposed to be fatal. They are the neighborhood of her face, hands and arms, and it will be some time before she recovers.

Mr. Allister himself was badly burned on the hands, and earries one hand in a multitude of bandages while the other is one mass of blisters.
