London Grabbed Twin Bill From Brants on Saturday

TRIBESMEN CELEBRATE FLAG-RAISING WITH TWO JAG-TIME WINS

Blanked Brants 3-0 in First and Copped Second 3-2—Noonan and Wenzell Iron-Manned It Through Both.

It just took the Teef 116 minutes on Saturday afternoon over at Tecumseh Park to show the home fans that they were all set for the championship of the second series; to raise the 1921 pennant and take two games from the perspiring Brants.

It happened so quickly that the Brants didn't even realize they were working double time. Wenzell blanked the Brants 3-0 in the first game, and Noonan, who continued the iron-man role by going into the abbreviated affair, and Wenzell added to his flying start by annexing the one, 3-2.

Both games were crammed full of fight—and good baseball. Michael Sexton, president of the National Association, who pulled the rope which threw the pennant to the tribesmen, between the first and second games, took occasion during a brief address to compliment the players on the class of ball they put up, and congratulate London fans on the privilege of seeing the kind of ball they were being given.

Threes of a Duel.

Wenzell and Noonan were in the throes of a duel for the first four frames of the opener, with little to choose between the two. A single by Malmquist, Oakes' sacrifice and Curry's single, broke into the placid state of affairs and produced a run for London in the fifth. In the seventh, the surface was further ruffled by Kuhn rapping out a two-bagger for his first effort. Malmquist came through with another double to left, scoring Bill and getting to third on Dye's sacrifice fly. He scored when Oakes lifted a sacrifice fly to left.

The Brants closed up in the seventh, when Beecher got on through a walk, was at third and Noonan hit an infield slap at Stutz. It wasn't called for, but Noonan might have been luckier for Stutz made a wonderful pick-up and the decision at first was close, but went to London.

When Wenzell elected to McGinnis, it through the second and the Brants hopped lightly on him for two runs in the first frame, it looked as if the newest arrival had made a mistake in judgment, and bitten off a chew that was slightly large. However, as it turned out, this was the worst that happened, and Oakes' error figured in to about half the damage.

Stutz' single and Carmen's triple repaired half the damage in the London half of the first, and Noonan put the screws on then and clamped the Tees down in one, two, three order.

In the fourth, however, they broke loose again, Schaefer setting to first through a bunt down the mound and Kuhn sacrificed and Malmquist laid one down at Noonan, Cully dropping Noonan's sure peg to third. Oakes bunted a neat one to the left, forcing in Schaefer, and Vandyle followed with a single to left which scored Malmquist.

This proved to be the feature up to the seventh when Wenzell got to a triple. Wenzell attempted to sacrifice, but Wenzell pegged out Wenzell coming home, and that was the last throw of the game, though the westerner tried to discourage play by a driblet that lasted from the fifth frame on.

In the fourth Carmen contributed the feature of the two games by nabbing Dye's long try and pegging Stupp out going into third. It was one of the best throws ever tossed at the park.

THOMPSON BRINGS GOLF HONORS EAST

Young Toronto Crack Wins At 'Peg Tourney in Thrilling Finish.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 28.—The Canadian golf championship stays in the east. The victory of Frank Thompson of Toronto, in the finals Saturday afternoon, decided this, but the decision was a belated one, as Charles Hague of Calgary carried the young Toronto crack to the thirty-eighth hole before losing one up, after the most stirring finish ever seen in any golf final.

It was a tough loss for the westerner and a brilliant win for the easterner. Thompson started out as if he were going to make it a short game, and was five up at the thirteenth hole in the morning, but Hague came back and cut the lead down to two holes at the finish of the morning play.

In the afternoon Thompson again assumed the lead, and was three up with nine to go, but it was at this stage where Hague showed his fighting powers.

He won the 28th and 29th, and by a fifteen-foot putt won the 30th. He squared the match on the 31st, and then went one up with a three on the 32nd by playing spectacular golf. It looked as if Thompson had cracked, but he came back wonderfully, won the 33rd, and squared the match again, while the next three were halved to send the match into extra holes. The match at the sixteenth hole when Hague played his approach short and took an extra putt.

DUNCAN AND MITCHELL WON TWO AT MONTREAL

MONTREAL, Aug. 27.—British golfers and Abe Mitchell, George Duncan, won both 18-hole games played at the Country Club here today, the first from C. B. Grier, Canadian amateur champion, and William McLuckie, former amateur champion, by four up, after a contest that was up hill for the amateurs all the way after the first hole, which Grier and McLuckie surprised the gallery and raised high hopes by winning. This was only one hole, however, which the amateurs were able to secure, the visitors winning the match at the sixteenth hole when they were four up. The last two holes were played, however, and both were halved.

The British golfers won the afternoon game from Albert Thompson and Arthur Woodard, Country Club and Outremont, professionals, respectively, 3 up and 2 to play, in a game that was devoid of spectacular features.

WATERLOO BOWLERS FAIL.

GUELPH, Aug. 27.—Waterloo bowlers made an unsuccessful attempt to lift the Partridge Cup here this afternoon, the defending rink winning out in a close game by two shots.

BRITONS GET ROYAL WELCOME AT CHATHAM

Games Interesting and J. Walker Gets Trimming by Wallaceburg Skip.

CHATHAM, Aug. 27.—The visit of the British bowlers here today was featured by two splendid games between the overseas men and bowling clubs from all over Western Ontario. The game in the morning was probably the most exciting of the two, the Britishers winning by the score of 153 to 132. W. H. Colwell of Wallaceburg gave J. Walker of the Britishers a good trimming by the score of 29 to 16, and John McLean of Bothwell handed defeat to A. Lansley by the score of 34 to 8.

The directors of the chamber of commerce were hosts to the bowlers at a luncheon at 1 o'clock on Saturday. Practically every bowler was present, and as a slight remembrance of the occasion each bowler received a corn-cob pipe and a twist of Kent County tobacco.

W. A. DaLee acted as chairman and gave a short address of welcome to the visitors. On behalf of the bowlers Captain Jagger expressed his thanks for the magnificent reception tendered, and also for the luncheon. "This has been one of the most pleasant surprises of my tour," he stated. M. Gray acted as pep-master and kept the guests and hosts well supplied with music and stunts.

BOSTON RED SOX PLAY LOCAL CREW TOMORROW

Pitt and Neitzke Will Be Main Attraction—Pinto, At Request of Sox Scout, To Pitch.

The Boston Red Sox will appear against the London champs at Tecumseh Park tomorrow afternoon, marking the second appearance of a major league team here this season.

There may be teams higher in the race than the red-hosed men of Duffy, but there are few teams in the majors that can trot out more famous players to view.

Pittenger and Neitzke, however, will be the main attraction tomorrow and it is expected that the latter will hurl for the visitors.

Ed. Holly, scout for the Sox, who was a spectator of Saturday's twin bill, has requested that Pinto be given the assignment for London tomorrow. He was here, primarily, on Saturday to watch Babe Dye, but Babe didn't have a very good afternoon, so Holly will be watching him today.

The Sox will be intact for tomorrow's game. Pitt will take Vitti's place at third, but otherwise the infield generally conceded to be the best in the American League will be in action. Scott, at shortfield, has the record for successive games played in, having taken part in more than 750 games without a break. He created a record last year in the matter of errors, too, having fielded the most perfect season ever turned in by a shortstop in the history of the game.

Hugh Duffy, manager of the Red Sox, and last year with the Toronto Leafs, is well liked by his players. Duffy has all kinds of patience with the rookies and the result is that he gets their best efforts.

He apparently has a high opinion of Neitzke's pitching possibilities as he has consistently kept the former London outfielder to pitching practice. Neitzke has worked in several games and his performances in these apparently seemed to strengthen Duffy's faith in him.

Pitt will be welcomed by London fans. Always a popular youngster, Pitt has changed much according to friends and he'll be "hot-dogging" it around third for the benefit of the London fans. Duffy has changed Pitt's batting idiosyncrasy and he now has a rep as a formidable swatter around the American circuit.

In the sixth when Watson tripled and scored on O. Kelly's single. The Hurons hopped on Gillenwater's slants for four hits and as many runs in the first frame, hitting around. They went out in order in the second, but concerted hitting in third and fourth brought five more runs. They batted in another in the sixth.

GILLENWATER FAILS AT IRON-MAN STUNT

Hurons Took Second Game From Aces—Kelly Swats Heavily After Lay-Off.

SARNIA, Ont., Aug. 28.—Gillenwater, after outpitching Horne in a fire hurlers' battle in the first game 4 to 1, essayed the ironman stunt for the second time against the Hurons at Watkins' Park, but the locals forced him to abdicate in the third inning of second affair in favor of Schwartz, who was also hammered at will. Owen Kelly, who has been on the bench for over a week, signalled his appearance back in the game by hitting safely five times in seven up in the two games. Both teams were guilty of some bone head play at times.

Pike's double, Maloney's error and Anderson's sacrifice hit scored Saginaw's run in the first inning of the first game. Doubles by McKee and Murphy in the fifth brought in another. In the eighth an error, a sacrifice, a stolen base and a single brought in another and in the ninth, Pike tripled and scored while Anderson was being tossed out at first. The only Huron tally came
