UNRESTRICTED REPRESENTATION

Again, by a decisive vote of the House of Commons, the National Policy has been sustained. A majority of 189 members declared against the amendment of Mr. Joseph A. Halifax, looking to a more unrestricted representation.

BRITISH COLUMBIA REPRESENTATION

Mr. Baker's three measures have been passed and the bill to amend the Representation Act is now before the House in the Dominion. The bill to amend the Representation Act is now before the House in the Dominion.

POPULAR SANITARY LEGISLATION

It is always pleasing to note any well directed efforts for the promotion of the public health. It is well that the skill and resources of the medical profession should not be limited to the cure of human maladies, and we are glad to find from time to time more general attention being given to the prevention and the removal of the many causes of disease.

THE GREAT NORTHWEST

During the three or four years that have elapsed since a number of the Great Northwest, the boundary line has been gradually shifting to the westward.
