Delicate Children

— is — Vinoli

"My 9 year old daughter was weak, pale, and had no appetite. I gave her Vinoli, and she began to thrive at once. She gained rapidly in weight, color and strength." — Mrs. W. H. Gilmore, Durand, Mich.

"My two children, who were puny and ailing, rapidly gained flesh and strength when I began to give them Vinoli. I proved that Vinoli is a splendid tonic for delicate children." — Mrs. C. Allen, New Bedford, Mass.

Vinoli builds up healthy flesh and makes thin little limbs round and plump. Children love to take it.

We return people's money without question if Vinoli does not accomplish all we claim for it. Try it, please.

CENSUS VS. REPRESENTATION

The probable result of the next census as announced by the Federal Board of Statistics places the Maritime Provinces in a very unsettled state as to their representation in the Dominion parliament.

The population of the eastern provinces did not increase in the same rates as that of the western provinces or Quebec and they are threatened with another reduction of their representation. The increase in the Maritime Provinces is figured at sixteen per cent, while the increase in Quebec has been twenty six per cent, twenty in Ontario and nearly one hundred per cent in the West.

As the representation of the other provinces is based in the Province of Quebec, which has sixty four members it is easy to figure out the probable result of the next census, unless the act governing this is amended. The Maritime Provinces will lose three members and the Western Provinces will gain ten or more.

This is how the next parliament will probably be made up:

	1901	1911
Quebec	65	65
Ontario	86	81
Maritime Provinces	35	32
Western Provinces	34	44
Yukon

221, 223

The Sun of St. John recently stated with bitterness that the people of the Maritime Provinces contributed to the expenses of the publicity campaign made by the Interior department to attract settlers to the West and now it is demonstrated that their contributions have been to their disadvantage as by the great increase in population of the West and East loses its "core" sensation.

This matter was the subject of a long debate in the House of Commons after the last census returns were published. The members of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island protested firmly against the diminution of their representation. At that time they asked for an amendment to the constitution but such was not granted, and the same predicament is again to be faced.

Why is it that the eastern provinces are not holding their own with Quebec and the West. Is it because the local governments are not making efforts to promote our natural resources and induce immigrants to our shores? Are they doing all that is necessary to make the provinces down by the sea as attractive as the West, or are they allowing matters to drift along. The natural wealth of the Maritime Provinces is beyond the comprehension of man, and are only being developed in a very small way. The soil is capable of bearing exceedingly large crops if properly cared for and social conditions are far superior to those existing in the West.

We are convinced that if all the people would work in harmony the Maritime Provinces would soon have nothing to envy in the other provinces and that the Federal parliament would not find it necessary to reduce their representation. We should make these provinces the 'New England' of Canada.

The utter lack of harmony among Conservatives was again emphasized when Dr. Chabot, the straight Conservative candidate at Ottawa, asked Mr. P. D. Monk, a leading Conservative M. P. to speak at a campaign meeting. Mr. Monk protests against the construction of a Canadian navy. Mr. P. D. Monk, a leading Conservative at the federal capital and editor of the Journal, which frankly supports the government policy of organizing a Canadian naval force promptly made known his disapproval of this move and is reporting to have informed Dr. Chabot that if Monk spoke he (Monk) would step down. There are two rival Conservative candidates in the field and their troubles are increasing. Those Conservative journals that professed to be in great glee the other day because there was quite a close vote in the selection of a Liberal candidate in Ottawa should not overlook the wrangling among Opposition followers.

Some men belong to every society in the neighborhood but the society of their home.

If a man thinks a great deal of his wife, he gets lots of nice things for her when she is sick, which he eats himself.

You don't have to go to war to be patriotic. Improve your locality, uphold your town, enlarge its interests, and lend a hand to progress and you are a patriotic citizen. If your country — as truly as the soldier who shoulders his musket.

A woman went into a newspaper and wished to advertise for her husband, who had disappeared. When she was going to help her out, but just then I saw the core among the cab bages and I thought I'd drive her out first. Mary often knew nuff to hang on till I got there.

At the coroner's inquest on the body of a woman who was drowned in a well the husband testified: I saw her when she leaned over the curb and tumbled in to help her out, but just then I saw the core among the cab bages and I thought I'd drive her out first. Mary often knew nuff to hang on till I got there.

One step won't take you very far — you've got to keep on walking; one word won't tell folks what you are — you've got to keep on talking; one inch won't make you very tall — you've got to keep on growing; one little ad won't do it all — you've got to keep 'em going.

We owe it to the community in which we live to do everything we can in every way possible that will be to its advantage. Our neighbor's prosperity means a great deal more to us than someone's who lives elsewhere. We should bear this in mind in buying our goods. We can afford to pay our home a fair price for his wares rather than send our money away knowing as we do that every dollar our own citizen makes will help in sustaining our schools, churches and public institutions. It pays richly to patronize home industry.

In regard to our schools, parents have duties to perform, which they can ill afford to neglect. They should show to their children that they have an interest in the school. They should examine carefully the reports sent by the teachers, should see that their children are in school every day and punctual; should assist and encourage their children to do all their school duties faithfully and well; should co-operate with the teacher in securing the prompt return of their children home after school is dismissed; should make a friendly visit to the school, and talk freely with the teacher and principal in regard to same.

The latest fad in society is the tub cure. In this the patient arises just as the crisp air of the morning is met by the first sunbeam. An ordinary washbasin is then filled with hot water and soap suds, into which various articles of linen are thrown. After they are thoroughly saturated the patient takes them up one at a time and rubs them briskly up and down on a washboard placed in the tub. This is kept up until the hands, arms and face are a glowing pink. The patient then goes into the open air and hangs all the linen articles on a line stretched for that purpose. The one completing the task first announces the time to others over the telephone, and is entitled to a prize. It is exciting sport and also invigorating exercise.

Encourage every home enterprise. Take an interest in every industry, invest liberally in the stock of faith and good-will, and distribute it all over your city. In every factory every shop every business house. It will pay you large dividends, and will cost very little. It can never depreciate in value. It will always be above par. Buy home goods by goods. Ask the merchants for them. Wear home made garments, eat home made articles of food, sleep on home made beds, read home made newspapers. In this way the money you spend is only loaned. It will come back to you again with interest. Praise up your city — don't run it down. Stand by your merchants and manufacturers — they are the bone and sinew of your municipal structure. Stand by your churches and your schools — they are the hopes of your future. Stand by your press — it is the tireless sentinel that guards your interests.

MATAPEDIA

On Monday Jan. 10th, the municipal elections for the Municipality of Matapedia were held at Matapedia, resulting in a great victory for our popular candidate, S. M. Adams who was elected by a majority of 46 over his opponent, J. Howard Gilles, M. D.

Friends of Mr. S. M. Adams, who are the many friends of Mr. Adams will be greatly pleased to hear of his success. Mr. Adams is one of our most enterprising business men, who has for a number of years taken a leading part in municipal affairs. His election for the third time he has been elected in succession. In the previous elections he was returned by acclamation. The election was presided over by Mr. R. O. Skiller, senior justice.

At the close of the poll, Mr. Adams in an eloquent address, thanked his many friends. A short address was also made by Mr. Skiller which brought the meeting to a close, and the friends of Mr. Adams conveyed him to his home.

U. N. B. BANQUET AT ST. JOHN LARGELY ATTENDED

ST. JOHN, Jan. 15—The dinner of the Alumni Society of the University of New Brunswick, held at the Dalferin Hotel last night, was the most successful function of the kind held by that society. U. N. B. graduates from all parts of the province attended the dinner and a number of excellent speeches were made. Chancellor Jones who replied to the toast of Alma Mater made a plea for an increase of government grants for financial assistance from the graduates. He intimated that it was possible that money could be secured from the Carnegie Fund if funds could be secured from other sources. The Chancellor stated that more equipment and larger salaries for the professors were needed, although the college was doing excellent work. Archdeacon W. O. Raymond, in the course of his remarks said he looked forward to the time when the denational colleges would be centered about the U. N. B. Other speakers including Premier Hazen, advocated closer connection between the common schools and the university. A. E. G. McKenzie of Campbellton was one of those present.

CONSERVATIVE PAPER ENDORSES NAVAL POLICY

VICTORIA, Jan. 14—The Colonist, chief conservative organ, heartily approves the naval program. It says: "The Colonist has fought and is prepared hereafter to fight the battles of the conservative party. It does not hesitate to say that the satisfaction it feels as a Canadian newspaper is not lessened by the fact that the naval bill whereby a beginning has been introduced into Parliament by a premier from Quebec. The significance of the fact will not be lost upon nations of the world. The principle having been settled the rest is a matter of details."
