Nevertheless, Mr. Chamberlain was sufficiently injured to necessitate his removal to the hospital, and he was carried or a stretcher from the room where his wounds were dressed. It is officially announced that he is suffering from a scalp wound, which is of a severe, but not dangerous character, rendering advisable his detention for the night. The gash on his forehead required a number of stitches. The conference of the Colonial Premiers who were to have met to discuss Imperial topics, has been postponed owing to the accident. Mr. Chamberlain is resting quietly, but the doctors are severed.

quietly, but the doctors are not sure he can be moved to-day.

Mrs. Chamberlain remained at the hospital until a late hour.

The following bulletin was issued this afternoon from Charing Cross Hespital: "Mr. Chamberlain is suffering from a scalp wound on the forehead. He is now free from pain and feeling comfortable. There is no concussion.

leeing comfortable. There is no concussion.

Mr. Chamberlain's injuries, although not dangerous, are likely to detain him in the house for the remainder of the week. He has already cancelled his engagements until next Thursday, and it is extremely doubtful if he will be permitted to attend the Coronation banquet, to be held in the Guidhall Friday, or the reception to Lord Kitchener Saturday, on his return from South Africa.

The Colonial Secretary has a nasty crescent shaped cut across the forehead, three inches long, and penetrating to the bone. Pieces of broken glass were embedded in the wound. There was no concussion, but the bone is bruised. Mr. Chamberlain also sustained a slighter cut under the right eye. Mr. Chamberlain treats the matter of his accident lightly.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra and the Prince and Princes of Wales have sent messages of inquiry to Charing Cross Hospital.

Standing Brick Walls in Whithy Fell, Demoishing Buildings.

Whitby, July S.—A miraculous escape from death was recorded here yesterday afternoon, and from three to five people in this town congratulated themselves last night that they are alive and unharmed.

For several months the brick walls of the old Gross Building on the main street of the town have been standing as a reminder of the last serious town fire, and to the majority of people a daily menace to the lives of many passing, and particularly to the occupient of two adjoining buildings, occupied by Arthur Gilpin, as a jewelry shop, and James Worfolk, as a barber shop and private dwelling. Yesterday the crash came during the fearful storm, and the Gilpin store is crushed to the ground- and the Worfolk shop and dwelling is practically a ruin.

Five minutes before the disaster.

Men Say That Street Railway Co. Is Violating Agreement.

adian Northern Strikers Ask For Ar-bitration-The C.N. Firemen Make' a Bemand-Plumbers' Strike Settled. Toronto, July 8.-A good deal of Toronto, July 8.—A good deal of friction is developing between the officials of the Street Railway Company and the members of the union and it begins to look as if the agreement entered into as a basis for the strike being declared off is not working to the satisfaction of both parties to the contract. A mass meeting of the union is called for two o'clock Sunday afternoon at Richmond Hall for the purpose of discussing the new phases of the trouble, According to the men the company officials are not living up to the spirit of the agreement. The union committee states that an unusually large number of the men have been suspended since the strike, and on the strength of such small complaints as would not have been noticed prior to the men making themselves obnoxious to the company with their union. Yesterday, according to this committee, the company suspended eight members of the union, some of whom were told to "bring in your badge" without may reasan being assigned.

The men declare that the day 'following the settlement of the strike,
