MACALLUM'S NOTES ON ENGLISH LITERATURE.

Literary Extracts selected from the Fourth Reader,

For Examination in English Literature for admission to High Schools,

By A. MACALLUM, M.A., LL.B., INSPECTOR OF SCHOOLS, HAMILTON,

CLOTH EXTRA, 100 pages. PRICE 20 cents,

Comprising BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES OF ALL THE AUTHORS from whom the selections have been made, full NOTES, Grammatical, Critical, etc., and in fact all that is necessary to pass the most rigorous examination on the selections assigned for admission to High Schools.

The work has been carefully revised and enlarged, containing an additional number of Notes an admirable article on the study of Higher English (reprinted by permission), by PROF. YOUNG; also, Examination Papers set for admission to High Schools.

The two Primers (Macallum's Notes and Davies' Notes on English Literature) are admirable little works. After a study of them the candidate will not alone understand more thoroughly the extracts of which they treat and appreciate their beauties, but his critical taste will be improved generally, and he will go to the reading of other works of our English Classics with new power.

J. A. McCABE, M.A., PRINCIPAL NORMAL SCHOOL, Ottawa.

An admirable little book containing many useful, valuable hints.—JAMES DUNCAN, PRINCIPAL ESSEX MODEL SCHOOL.

It will be a very great assistance both to our Public School Teachers as well as to their pupils. Any pupil mastering it will have no difficulty in entering our High Schools.

J. S. ATKINSON, M.D., Head Master Model School, Prescott.

I am convinced it must prove very useful. Its explanations are full and concise and put in a very interesting manner, which will ensure for it great attention at the hands of the pupils.

N. GORDON, Head Master Model School, Picton.
