Now He Takes Our Paper.

A man who was too stingy to subscribe for a paper borrowed a Maine story-paper and found that by sending one dollar to a Yankee he could get a cure for drunkenness. Sure enough he did. It was to "take the pledge and keep it." Later on he sent fifty two cent stamps to find out how to raise turnips successfully. He found out—"Just take hold of the tops and pull." Being young he wished to marry, and sent thirty-four one cent stamps to a Chicago firm how to make an impression. When the answer came it read, "Sit down on a pan of dough." That was a little rough, but he was a patient man, and thought he would yet succeed. The next advertisement he answered read: "How to double your money in six months." He was told to convert his money into bills, fold them, and he would see his money doubled. The next time he sent for twelve useful household articles and got a package of needles. He was slow to learn, so he sent a dollar to find out "how to get rich"—"Work like the devil and never spend a cent." That stopped him, but his brother wrote to find out how to write a letter without pen or ink. He was told to use a lead pencil. He paid five dollars to live without work, and was told on a postal card to "fish for suckers, as we do." He takes his home paper now and is happy.

Conundrums.

Wh swearing aloud like an old coat?

Because it is a bad habit.

What soup do cannibals prefer?

The broth of a boy.

Why is a good husband like dough?

Because a woman needs him.

Why are the cats like unskilful surgeons?

Because they mew-till-late.

Why is a steam engine at a fire an anomaly? Because it works and plays at the same time.

Why is a field of grass like a person older than yourself? Because it is past-your-age (pasturage).

Why is the letter W like a scandal? Because it makes ill will.

An Evasive Answer.—"John," said a clergyman to his factotum, "I shall be very busy this afternoon, and if any one calls I do not wish to be disturbed."

"All right, sir. Will I tell them you're not in?"

"No, John. That would be a lie."

"An' what'll I say, yer reverence?"

"Oh, just put them off with an evasive answer."

At supper time John was asked if any one had called.

"Yes, there did," he said.

"And what did you tell him?" asked the clergyman.

"I gave him an evasive answer."

"How was that?" queried his reverence

"He asked me was yer reverence in, an' I sez to him, sez I, 'Was your grandmother a hoot owl?'"—London Answers.
