

A LITERARY AVALANCHE.

"What is the world coming to? The poorest man now is put on an equality with the richest, so far as books are concerned." CENTRAL ARTIST, St. Louis, Mo.

A Point. All books here advertised are ready for you. You can pay for the books after you have received and examined them. See particulars under "Fair Terms to Buyers." given below. 2nd Point. To secure my best bargains, must you al. ways order promptly. The terms here given are good for ten days only. The "nimble six pence" is one item essential to the low prices. Book-sellers generally do not sup. ply my publications, but I can allow them only small discounts, and the "pressure" of millionaire publishers, incline the majority against me.

THE ELZEVIR LIBRARY.

"The cheapest of all the libraries."—SUNDAY GLOBE, Boston.
"Even in these days of cheap books this is wonderful."—DAILY POST, Pittsburgh.
"The greatest attraction in point of cheap and good reading that any publisher has yet offered."—THE MAIL, Toronto.

The following have already appeared in THE ELZEVIR LIBRARY, and are sold separately at the prices affixed. All are unabridged, and are printed in type shown by these four lines, or larger.

The entire series of "Ancient Classics for English Readers," 27 vols., heretofore sold at $1 each, are publishing one or more each week, uniform with the Cæsar, Herodotus, Aristotle, etc.

A Great Offer. On condition that you will forward your receipt of this paper, within ten days from your receipt of this paper, I will send by return mail, for 25 cents cash, your own selection from the above list to the value of 50 cents, or, for $1.50 cash, the entire list, the full price of which is $2.00.

Library of Universal Knowledge.

"It is the crown of the cheap and solid literature movement of the day."—PRESBYTERIAN JOURNAL, Philadelphia.

I have again secured control of the publication of this greatest of American Cyclopedias, and am again able to adopt, substantially, my old price-list. The present are uniform with the former American Book Exchange editions.

This is a verbatim reprint of the 1820 London edition of Chambers's Encyclopædia, with copious additions by American editors. It gives an amount of matter about 10 per cent. more than Appleton's Cyclopedias, (price in cloth, $3.00, and 20 per cent. more than Johnson's Cyclopedias, price $1.00 in cloth. For the general reader it is the best Encyclopædia ever published, whatever the price. Prices for the set of 15 volumes are as follows: Extra cloth, $15.00, half Russia, $20.00, full library sheep, marbled edges, $25.00.

Special Offer. On condition that you order within ten days from your receipt of this paper, I will send you by express, or freight, at the following special prices: Cloth, $11.50; half Russia, $14.50; sheep, $16.50. See particulars under "Fair Terms to Buyers," below.

"We admire a man of pluck and brains. He may be cast down, but he cannot be destroyed. He may be brought to the dust, but gathering new vigor and resolution from his very misfortunes, he raises a conqueror above them all. The literary monopolists succeeded in strangling the great 'literary revolution,' but while the echoes of their rejoicings are still heard, behold, the irrepressible Alden appears in their very midst at the head of a 'Literary Rebellion,' which, in a magnitude and glory of its achievements, bids fair to outstrip the late 'Revolution.' So mote it be."—RECORD, San Augustine, Texas.

The Great British Novelists.

These choice editions of the world's most eminent novelists, are printed in the large and beautiful type shown by these three lines.

I have recently been so extremely fortunate as to secure the control of the entire "plant" and all of the manufactured stock of the superb "Caxton Illustrated Editions" of the Complete Works of Dickens and Thackeray. The Dickens is published in 15 large 12mo volumes, large Long Primer type, with about 200 full-page illustrations.

Dickens. It is acknowledged on all hands to be the country's best edition of Dickens published in this country. The binding is especially unique and beautiful, the best English cloth, with ink and gold designs, and the set is packed in a neat paper box. The following is a list of the volumes, each containing over 800 pages:

- | | |
|------------------------------|--|
| 1 Pickwick Papers | 10 Old Curiosity Shop and Hard Times |
| 2 David Copperfield | 11 Two Cities, Sketches by Boz |
| 3 Martin Chuzzlewit | 12 Barnaby Rudge and Edwin Drood |
| 4 Nicholas Nickleby | 13 Expectations, Traveller, Miscellany |
| 5 Bleak House | 14 Christmas Stories |
| 6 Little Dorrit | 15 Child's History of England. |
| 7 Dombey & Son | |
| 8 Mutual Friend | |
| 9 Oliver Twist, Italy, Notes | |

The price of this edition has heretofore been $2.50 per set, which I have reduced to $1.00. My edition is absolutely the same as heretofore published. The reduction is entirely in price, nothing in quality. Separate volumes, $1 each.

Thackeray's. Works may be described in the same words which I have applied to Dickens, as to type, illustrations and binding, except that they are bound in eleven volumes. The following is a list of the volumes:

- | | |
|---------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1 Vanity Fair | 7 Paris, Irish Sketches, etc |
| 2 Pendennis | 8 Harry Lynders, etc |
| 3 Newcomes | 9 Roundabout Papers |
| 4 Virginians | 10 Burlesque, Yellowplush, etc |
| 5 Philip, etc | 11 Christmas Books |
| 6 Henry Esmond, etc | |

The price of the edition heretofore has been $16.50 per set, which I have reduced to $10. Separate volumes, $1 each.

Waverley. This delightful edition of Scott's Waverley Novels is just published, uniform in all respects with Dickens and Thackeray. The volumes contain over 900 pages each, with profuse, fine illustrations. The following is a list of the volumes:

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 Waverley and Woodstock | 6 Rob Roy, Heart of Midlothian |
| 2 Black Dwarf, Old Mortality | 7 Ivanhoe, The Talisman |
| 3 Quentin Durward | 8 The Monastery, The Abbot |
| 4 Brian's Lammermoor, Legend of Montrose | 9 Fortunes of Nigel, Count Robert of Paris |
| 5 Kenilworth, St. Roman's Well | 10 Redgauntlet, The Pirate |
| 6 Guy Rainsford, Anne of Geierstein | 11 Fair Maid of Perth, The Anti-Juary |
| | 12 Perseus of the Peak, The Betrothed |

It is much the handsomest edition ever published at anything less than double the price here asked. It can be supplied in sets only. An edition much inferior to this, printed from these same plates, has heretofore sold at $18.00; I reduce to $12.00.

Eliot. George Eliot's complete works are published uniform with Dickens and Thackeray. It is the only complete edition, including her poems, and much the finest published in this country. The following are the volumes:

- | | |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1 Middlemarch | 7 Scenes from Clerical Life |
| 2 Daniel Deronda | 8 Adam Sedgwick |
| 3 Romola | 9 Silphianthus Such, The Spanish (typo), Jubal and Other Poems |
| 4 Adam Bede | |
| 5 Felix Holt | |
| 6 The Mill on the Floss | |

This edition has heretofore sold at $12.00. I reduce the price to $7.00 for the set of 8 vols. It can be supplied in sets only.

Amazing offer. Notwithstanding the very great reduction in the price of the above, I offer you still further reduction on condition that you order within ten days from your receipt of this paper (see full particulars under "Fair Terms to Buyers") as per following net prices, to be sent by express:

- | | |
|--|---------|
| Dickens's Complete Works, per set | $10.00 |
| Thackeray's Complete Works, per set | 7.00 |
| Scott's Complete Works, per set | 8.50 |
| George Eliot's Complete Works, per set | 5.00 |

Permit me to congratulate you on being right side up again. The greatest and success of a man consists not in his being able always to stand up, but in his being able to get up as often as he is knocked down."—DR. JOSEPH CURTIS, Nacoochee, Ariz.

You don't know how glad I am to see you on deck again, as your own captain and pilot. I enclose $4 for Irving's works in two volumes. It is cheaper than stealing."—FRED. THOMSON, Lynn Centre, Ill.

Works of Washington Irving.

The expiration of the copyright on his writings frees them from the short-sighted monopoly which has heretofore kept the incomparable productions of this most famous of American prose writers beyond the reach of the masses of book buyers. I now have ready:

MODEL OCTAVO EDITION.—Complete in two volumes, aggregating about two thousand pages, containing all of his writings except the "Life of Washington." Price, per set, cloth, $1; half Russia, red edges, $2.

ILLUSTRATED EDITION.—The same as the above, printed on finer paper, very richly bound, in three volumes, cloth, extra gilt, red edges, and enclosed in a neat box. This edition is sumptuously illustrated with 64 full page colored engravings by celebrated artists. Price for the set, $7.50.

Extra! If ordered within ten days, I will send you Irving's Works as above by Express, per "Fair Terms to Buyers" at the following special net prices: plain cloth, $3; half Russia, $3.75; illustrated, $5.65. Previous to the publication of this edition the cheapest edition of Irving was $32.50 per set.

"I am glad you have tackled Irving. The fearful prices of the monopolists have kept it off my shelves so far. I give you this week a first class notice. You deserve it without any consideration of books in return."—P. J. SMALLEY, (Editor) Caledonia, Minn.

The Irving, in three Vols., is the finest thing I ever saw at the price. Indeed, it is not the fault of the hero of the literary rebellion if lovers of good literature go without books. There is a lack in the future history of America for the same hero, should he conquer a final success, second to that of Rowland Hill in the History of England. Mrs. Z. A. Russell, White Pigeon, Mich.

Cyclopedia of Fiction.

The below mentioned volumes are all printed in the very beautiful large Long Primer type, which is shown in these four lines.

In this series it is intended to include, unabridged, the best work of each of the great authors of the world who have won eminent place in the realm of fiction. These characteristic volumes make you acquainted with those famous writers not to know something of whom would be lamentable ignorance; afford you an infinite amount of pleasant recreation, and of really useful knowledge, for fiction, better than history, gives you intimate knowledge of the life of the people in the various ages and countries in which its scenes are laid. The following volumes may be roughly classed as representing:

- | | |
|---|----------------|
| Hyperion—Modern life of the scholar and poet | British Isles. |
| Thule—Modern romance, art and scenery of | last century. |
| Adam Bede—North of England country life in | last century. |
| Hyperion—Egyptian and Roman life in the first century | |
| Ivanhoe—English life in the romantic era of the Crusades | |
| Pompeii—Life in a Roman city in the first century, and fate of | |
| Copperfield—Lower and middle classes of England during recent | |
| times. | |
| Jane Eyre—Unequaled pictures of certain phases of English life. | |
| John Halifax—English life again, nobility in the common. | |
| Vanity Fair—English life, the keenest of modern satires. | |
| The Spy—Green Mountain Boys—American life in Revolution | |
| times. | |
| The Berber—Life in Spain and Morocco in the 17th century. | |
| Horse-Shoe Robinson—American Revolutionary Life. | |

- 1 Longfellow's Hyperion and Black's A Princess of Thule, cloth 75 cts, half Russia, 80 cts.
- 2 George Eliot's Adam Bede, and Kingsley's Hypatia, cloth, 90 cts, half Russia, $1.10.
- 3 Scott's Ivanhoe, and Bulwer's Pompeii, cloth, 80 cts; half Russia, $1.00.
- 4 Dickens's David Copperfield, cloth, 80 cts, half Russia, $1.00.

- 6 Thackeray's Vanity Fair; nearly 200 fine illustrations; cloth, 80 cts; half Russia, $1.10.
- 7 Cooper's The Spy, and Judge Thompson's The Green Mountain Boys, cloth, 80 cts, half Russia, $1.00.
- 8 Kennedy's Horse Shoe Robinson, and Mayo's The Berber; cloth, 80 cts; half Russia, $1.00.

Two books bound in one as indicated, for price named.

Cyclopedia of History

The historical portions of Cyclopedias are commonly made up of brief sketches by unknown authors, the subjects arranged in alphabetical order. This series will include, unabridged, the great standard works of the most celebrated authors, with additions by less known writers, such as are necessary to make the series universal and complete. Brevier type is shown by these lines; Long Primer, two sizes larger, is shown elsewhere.

- 1 Green's Larger History of the English people. Model Octavo edition, Brevier, solid, cloth, $1; half Russia, $1.25. Elzevir Ed., Brevier, leaded, 5 vols., cloth, $2; half Russia, $2.50.
- 2 Schiller's History of the Thirty Years' War in Germany. Elzevir edition, Brevier, leaded, cloth, 45 cts, half Russia, 60 cts.
- 3 Greasy's History of the Fifteen Decisive Battles of the World. Elzevir edition, Brevier, leaded, cloth, 45 cts; half Russia, 60 cts.
- 4 Schiller and Cressy, as above, in one volume, Model Octavo edition, Brevier, solid, cloth, 60 cts; half Russia, 80 cts.
- 5 Carlyle's History of the French Revolution. Model Octavo edition, Brevier, solid, cloth, 90 cts; half Russia, 100 cts. Elzevir edition, 2 vols., Brevier, leaded, cloth 90 cts; half Russia, $1.25.

- 6 The Histories of Carlyle, Schiller, and Cressy, in one volume, Model Octavo, Brevier, solid, cloth, $1.50; half Russia, $1.75.
- 7 Schmitz's Manual of Ancient History from earliest times to A.D. 476. Large 12mo, Long Primer, solid, cloth, 65 cts; half Russia, 80 cts.
- 8 Rollin's Ancient History of the Egyptians, Carthaginians, Assyrians, Babylonians, Medes and Persians, Grecians and Macedonians, 4 vols., large 12mo, Long Primer, solid, cloth, $3.50; half Russia, $4.

- 9 Gibbon's History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire; Complete in two vols., large 12mo, Brevier, solid, cloth, $2; half Russia, $2.50.
- 10 The Notes of Dean Milman to Gibbon's Rome, as above, large 12mo, Brevier, solid, cloth, 80 cts; half Russia, 100 cts.

- 11 Gibbon's History of Rome, with the notes of Milman, complete in 5 vols., Brevier, solid, Acme edition, cloth, $2.30; Aldus edition, half Russia, gilt top, $3.50.
- 12 Macaulay's History of England, complete in 3 vols., Brevier, solid, Acme edition, cloth, $1.50; Aldus edition, half Russia, gilt top, $2.50.

- 13 Grote's History of Greece, complete in 4 volumes, Brevier, solid, Acme edition, cloth, $2.25; Aldus edition, half Russia, gilt top, $3.50.
- 14 Frobart's Chronicles of England, France, Spain, and adjoining countries. Imperial octavo, double column, Brevier, solid, numerous illustrations, cloth, $1.50.

SIZE.—The following are the sizes in inches, of editions above named: Elzevir, 8 by 4 1/2; model octavo, 10 1/4 by 6 7/8; 12mo, 7 3/8 by 4 7/8; Acme, 6 1/4 by 4 1/2; Aldus, 7 by 5 1/4.

Special Offer. If ordered within ten days from your receipt of this paper, I will send your own selection from Cyclopedias of Fiction and of History by express, (see particulars under "Fair Terms to Buyers") at the following special discounts:

Any selections under $5, at 20 per cent. discount.
Any selections over $5, at 25 per cent. discount.

Fair Terms To Buyers.

Any books which you may order which are not found, for any reason, satisfactory, MAY BE RETURNED if immediately by cheapest conveyance, at my expense, and your money will be immediately refunded.

Orders under $5.00 net must be accompanied by the cash. Orders over $5.00 net will be filled by O. O. P. AND PRIVILEGE OF EXAMINATION ALLOWED BEFORE PAYMENT is required. Business references, or a small cash payment, should accompany orders from persons unknown to me. Full remittance with your order will save the express charges on the return of the money.

Orders will be filled WITHOUT THE O. O. P. and you can pay for them after arrival and examination, if any merchant of good business standing will certify.

"I am known to me as honorable and responsible, and will either pay for, or return, immediately upon receipt, any goods which he may order."

Let this be signed and inclosed with your order. It is only a simple guarantee, by one who knows you, that you are honorable, able, and evidence of your good faith. The name of a "Merchant" is required, because the "Commercial Reports" tell me in a moment what is the business standing of any merchant in the United States. You, a farmer, doctor, or clergyman, may be of the highest standing, but I have no means of knowing the fact.

The Elzevir Library is sent prepaid at the prices advertised. All other books are sent prepaid at LIST PRICES, but when sold at NET PRICE on special offer, transportation charges will be paid on arrival of the goods by the person receiving them, if desired to be sent by mail, add 15 per cent. of list prices, to cover postage.

Transportation will cost you much less, proportionately, on a large package than on a small; it will be wise, therefore, to combine with your neighbors and make your order as large as possible.

Over 50 lbs. in weight can usually be sent more cheaply by freight than by express, but in that case you must pay actual cost of boxing and cartage. Roughly estimating, $10 worth of books at list price will weigh 20 lbs. By freight, the Railroads charge anything less the same as 100 lbs., therefore make your order large as possible.

THIS COUPON

Must be cut out and returned with your order (mentioning the name of the paper from which it is taken,) within ten days, from receipt of this paper in order to entitle you to the special discounts offered in this advertisement.

Remit by Bank draft, Express or Money order, or registered letter. Fractions of one dollar can be sent in postage stamps. Address,
