PETROLEUM.—Says the Petrolia Topic of November 7th:—The shipments of crude, and refined and distillate reduced to crude equivalent, over the Grand Trunk and Michigan Central railways, for the month ending the 31st of October, amounted to:—

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

Crude. Distillate. Refined. Crude equivalent.

13,924 bbls. — 18,753 bbls. 60,807 bbls

MICHIGAN CENTRAL RAILWAY.

4,477 bbls. — 10,956 bbls. 31,867 bbls.

Total for month, 92,674 bbls.

To those who are anxious for appreciation in crude values these figures are encouraging. They evidence a very large increase in the consumption of Canadian refined over previous seasons, and argue plainly against the statement that the American article is robbing us more than ever of the home market.

THE article in the JOURNAL OF COMMERCE of 24th Oct., referred to in the communication of "Traveller" elsewhere, was intended to deal only with a feature of the business which our valued correspondent seems to ignore. The complaints made by wholesale grocers and others in the large centres of trade are, that some manufacturers of soap, tobacco, &c., do not keep faith with them: they [the manufacturers] will, through their agents, secure a large order from the wholesaler on the strength of a promise that they will not sell on the same terms in small retail lots to his customers throughout the country, and they immediately proceed to violate the agreement. The practice described by "Traveller" is no less deserving of reprobation.

Close Buyers visiting the markets will do well to give me a call.

THE scandalous condemnation several years ago of the Atlantic Mutual Life Insurance Company to the ignominy of a receivership by Judge Westbrook, has furnished, as was designed, a fine target for the hungry of the legal craft. The last claim allowed was that of Messrs. Smith, Monk, and Buchanan, attorneys, who have been adjudged $7,923 as their portion of the dead carcass. In these cases of revision we want some such judicial magnates on the bench as Judge Thomas Drummond, of Milwaukee, who upon three lawyers suing a client for the sum of $25,000 for settling an estate worth $32,000, reduced the charges to $5,000 as more proportioned to the salary he himself received as judge from the people.—Ins. and R. E. Journal.
