THE CHAMPION FIGHT.

In the Upper Town market no brass coats or blue buttons to be seen at the time of the fight, between 2 celebrities, one from that celebrated place St. Louis suburbs and the other from St. Sauveur. Both noted characters from their pugilistic propensities Johnny Seymour from St. Sauveur and Dobby Dickson from the suburbs seconded champions Ned Aird bottle holder Lord Lynch and Billy Jacobs referee time was called.

First round.—McKenna drew out his left and hit his opponent on the jewel when St. Sauveur duped the blow and hid on the jaw loosening all his teeth. The first round was fought in 1 05

2nd round fought in 2.15 St. winning the round.

3rd round.—Great sparring fancy style. St. Louis suburbs leading off but St. Sauveur getting mad knocked his opponent of his pins. The fight was declared to be in St. Sauveur favor.

A grand crow shooting match will take place on the ice next saturday between the 5th battalion and B. Battery. The decision of the match to come off by the celebrities of Woodleys factory.

THE YOUNG BRIGONS BALL.

Took place in the Temperance Hall, we were very happy to see such a reunion of family acquaintance but the Star never seen such a display of white muslin orange blossoms and roses mingled with the shamrock green, dont forget him rule, God save Ireland.

Looker on:

We have lots of correspondence left over this week for want of space
All communications for the "Star" must be forwarded for Wednesday evening the latest. E.D.

ME AND BILL BROWN.

There is a certain young man in Diamond Harbour, who answer to the name of Jim Brown but the most appropriate cognomen for him, would be Jim the chaw, as he is never done blowing about all the money he spends, he wants to make people believe he's a sport, and every subject he starts, begins with Me and Bill Brown. Now Jim we fine big chaw take a friends advice, and dont make a bare of yourself any longer, you annoy anybody trying to make them believe what the knew to be false. That you're a sport if it was Harry Cooper was to talk that way nobody would mind it for Harry has spent money in his time. Let somebody else blow your horn Jim, and take a rest for a while, dont make a laughing stock of yourself any longer every body knows the kind of a sport Bill Brown is take all the drinks he can get, and never shout himself, enough sed for the present.

Yours respectfully,

John Cooper.

WOODEN HOUSE.

Yes I do go up there seven nights in the week and, I dont care who knows it, I want to go off before the brother Jim Clim, besides look at all the Norwegian captains that does be there too.
