WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION, And the best Medicine known to man for Asthma of every stage, Liver Comalants, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, bleeding of the Lungs, shortness of Breath, Pains and Weakness in the side, breast, &c., and all other diseases of the Pulmonary organs.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION!

The greater the value of any discovery, the higher it is held in the esteem of the Public, and so much in proportion is that public liable to be imposed upon by the spurious imitations of ignorant, designing and dishonest men, who like the drone in the hive, have neither the ability nor inclination to provide for themselves, but thrive and luxuriate upon the earnings of the deserving.

Now that this preparation is well known to be a more certain cure for incipient Consumption, Asthma, Liver complaint, Coughs, Bronchitis, and all similar affections, than any other remedy ever known, there will be, and now are found those so villainously wicked as to connect a spurious, and perhaps a poisonous mixture and try to palm it off as the genuine Balsam.

This is to caution dealers and the public generally against purchasing any other than that having the written signature of I. Butts on the wrapper. The rest merely imitate the name of the original while they possess none of its virtues.

Originally prepared by Williams & Co., Philadelphia, now prepared and sold wholesale and retail, only by Seth. W. Fowle, Boston, Mass., to whom all orders should be addressed, and for sale by his agents throughout the country.

The genuine is signed I. BUTTS. For Sale by LYMAN & KNEESHAW, Druggists, King Street only Agents for Toronto.

THE BRITISH PERIODICALS

AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE.

LEONARD SCOTT & Co., No. 54, Gold Street, New York, continues to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine, in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called the "Farmer's Guide to Scientific and Practical Agriculture."

By HENRY STEPHENS, F.R.S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," &c., &c.; assisted by JOHN P. NORTON, M.A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture, in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1,400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than 600 engravings on wood, in the highest style of the art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The work is being published in Semi-monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel engravings, and is sold at 25 Cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals Re-published are as follows, viz.:-

- The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative). The Edinburgh Review, (Whig). The North British Review, (Free-Church). The Westminster Review, (Liberal), and Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other Journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel" (both by Bulwer), "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by M. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.
