George W. Dick, of Newton, Mass., says: "Two years ago I took a severe cold, which, being neglected, was followed by a terrible cough. I lost flesh rapidly, had night sweats, and was confined to my bed. A friend advised the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I began to take this medicine, and, before finishing the first bottle, was able to sit up. Four bottles effected a perfect cure."

$20,000 TO BE GIVEN FREE TO

The Grandest Offer Ever Made by Any Publisher.

We are determined to secure 100,000 subscribers to our paper this year, and in order to do so, intend giving away absolutely free, the above amount in prizes.

We have filled an ordinary quart gem jar with common field peas. This jar has been securely sealed so that no person knows the number of peas it contains. It has been deposited in a safety vault and cannot be opened until the expiration of this contest, December 31st, 1889. The following 3,385 presents will be given to the 3,385 persons making the best guesses as to the number of peas the jar contains. To the person guessing the correct number, $1,000 in Cash. To the person guessing nearest the correct number, $750 Cash. To the person making the next best guess, $500. To the two persons making the next best guesses, $250 each. To the ten persons making the next best guesses, $100 each. To the twenty making the next best guesses, $50 each. For the next fifty best guesses, $25 each. For the next 100 best guesses, $10 each. For the 400 next best, $5 each. For the 800 next best, $2.50 each. For the 2,000 next best, $1 each. For the 5,000 next best, $1 each.

Conditions:—No guess will be received and recorded, except from a person who becomes a subscriber to the FIRESIDE VISITOR, and sends $1 for 12 month's subscription. The $1 is the regular subscription price of the FIRESIDE VISITOR, and is in no sense a payment for the guess, but for the FIRESIDE VISITOR, which we believe will be so interesting that you will become a permanent reader. The jar will be opened, peas counted, and presents awarded December 31st, 1889. Should no person guess the correct number, then the person guessing nearest will receive the present of $1,000. Should two or more persons guess the actual number, then the one whose guess is first received will get the present of 1,000, and the next will be entitled to the second, and so on.

To Club Raisers:—To those who desire to form clubs among their friends, we will send six subscriptions for $5; twelve for $10 and twenty-five for $20, and fifty for $40; each subscription to be accompanied with the guess in plain figures opposite the name and address. This offer is made for the sole purpose of introducing our paper into every family in the United States and Canada.
