confessed as much, with curious candid cynicism, in what we must, I suppose regard as his 'Apologia pro Historia Sua.' his 'Divorce of Katharine of Arragon.' 'I do not pretend to impartiality

In a book written with such convictions, the mythical element cannot be wholly wanting.' "

An Absurd Fallacy.

Commenting on the observation of the reporter in the New York Sun, to which we referred last week-that the fact of the invenile train wreckers at Rome, N. Y., being intelligent young men makes the crime all the more difficult to understand-the Ave Maria very aptly remarks: "Had they been more intelligent they would probably have succeeded in wrecking the whole train." It is surely a striking commentary on the superficality of the age that such a remark as that made in the Sun could be uttered in the year of grace that witnessed the condemnation of Oscar Wilde, Jabez Spencer Balfour, Theodore Durant, H. H. Holmes and scores of less notorious villains of a high order of inshatter the nineteenth-century dogma of salvation by intelligence, we should like to know what will. It would have been a sad misfortune to any one of those four young desperadoes to have been brought up without learning to read; but what thoughtful man, not himself a criminal, will deny that this would have been infinitely better both for themselves and for society than to have him taught the art of reading and left with a taste for the "Life of Jesse James "?—Casket.

From L'Impartial, Tignish, P. E. I.

Mr. Dominick P. Chiasson, who lives on the Harper Road, about two miles from the town of Tignish, P. E. I., per-sonally took the trouble to bring before the notice of the editor of L'Impartial the particulars of the cure of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. D. Chiasson, through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The case is certainly a remarkable one, and We cannot do better than give it in Mr. Chiasson's own words. "My son's wife" Chiasson's own words. Keep the Works in good order.

NORMAN, Out., January 15, 1890.

W. H. CCMST.CE, Brockville, Ont.

DEAR SIR,—Your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills" are the best regulator for the system that humanity can use. Life is as the time-p. ece: frail and delicaw are many of its works. A tiny particle of foreign substance adheres to the smallest wheel in the works and what is the result?—at first, only a slight difference is perceptible in its time-keeping, but wait you; as the obstruction grows, the inregularity becomes greater, until at last, what could have been rectified with little trouble, in the beginning, will now require much care in thoroughly cleansing the entire works. So it is in human life—a slight derangement is neglected, it grows and increases, imperceptibly at first, then rapidly, until what could, in the beginning, thave been cured with little tro ble, becomes almost fatal. To prevent this, I advise all to purify the system frequently, by the use of Morse's Pills, and so preserve v.gor and vitality.

Your faithfully.

Dear Sir,—For many years, I have been a firm believer in your "Dr. Morse's Indian Root 1/11s."

Not with a blind faith, but a confidence wrought by an actual personal experience of their value and merit. My business is such that I spend much of my time away from home, and I would not consider my travelling outfit complete without a box of Morse's Pills.

Yours, &c.,

FOR OLD PEOPLE. FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.

Should you find the cold, raw autumn winds chilling you to the bone and making you feel as though it would be almost impossible to stand the still colder weather yet to come. Try say a half-pint bottle a day of our Extra Porter; the cost will be but a trifle over five cents per day and may do you a great deal of good.

Porter enriches the blood, warms up the system and generally produces a cheerfulness of mind and a desire to look upon the brighter side of life.

Many people say "I don't like porter or.

er side of life.

Many people say "I don't like porter or lager, if I did I would use it regularly and no doubt be benefitted by its use." Now, people, as a ceneral thing, don't use only the medicines prescribed for them, that are palatable or that just suit their fancy, they take anything and everything the doctor sends. So we say to such people take your porter as an article of fully recognized medicinal value, whether you like it or not. Porter—and this applies equally to our ale or lager—is so mild a stimulant that none of the depressing effects sometimes felt after using stronger stimulants is experienced.

Bottled in quarts, pints and half-pints, the latter one glass, no waste always fresh.
