SPRING'S DELIGHTS.

Spring's delights are all reviving, Outdoors, feathered songsters sing, Indoors, every soul is striving— Tis the cleaning up of Spring.

Furniture is topsy-turvy; Missing, too, is everything;
On my word it is a scurvy
Trick, this cleaning up of Spring.

Carpets, too, are rudely shaken Rolling forth dense clouds of dust; Meals are a /a pic-nic taken— You don't like it, but you must.

"Where the dickens is my razor?

Razor! 'deed I can't say, sir;"
Then you fume and stamp and say,

"Thank the Lord! 'tis but once yearly, Twice would drive a fellow, clearly, Into Bedlam raving mad.

Spring's delights are all reviving, Outdoors, feathered songsters sing, Outdoors, feathered song..... Indoors, every soul is striving... "Tis the cleaning up of Spring.From Judy.

A mustard plaster is not a very poetic subject; but, ah, how warmly it appeals to a man's feelings.

She: So you wouldn't take me to be twenty. What would you take me for? He: For better, for worse.

"Have you any friends in this city?" asked the paying teller at the bank. "No; I'm a baseball umpire."

Scientists would have us believe that the sting of a bee is only one thirty-second of an inch long. What nonsense!

Mack: Was the girl Higbee married considered a good match? Robins: I imagine so. She fires up at the least provocation.

Bill Boozler: Got a dime, m' friend? I'm completely busted. Dudley: No; ain't got a cent. Bill Boozler: Ain't hey? Gad, I pity yer; here's a quarter.

She: Oh, this voting is perfectly lovely. I never did enjoy anything quite so much. Let's go around and vote at all the places. He: Well, I guess not. She: Oh, you mean

"I am too much of a gentleman, sir, to tell you what I think of you here," exclaimed the irate politician, "but if I ever eatch you in Congress I'll call you a liar, sir—a liar and a thief."

Head Surgeon at the Hospital: I must tell you, my good woman, that your son will be compelled to have his leg taken off. Anxious Mother: Oh, dear! Then what can I do with his other boot?

Uncle Hiram: If yer want ter have good dogs yer must edjicate 'em to it. I took as much trouble to rear me dog thar ez I did with me son Ike! "But that dog is no good!" Uncle Hiram: Neither is Ike!

"Now good digestion wait on appetite, And health on both,"

And health on both,"
says the great Shakespeare, but he did not have in mind a coated tongue or torpid liver, with all the symptoms of biliousness, so common in this country, All this, and more, can be cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a purely vegetable compound, which restores the action of the liver, gives tone to the flagging energies of the dyspeptic's stomach, and thus enables "good digestion to wait on appetite, and health on both." By druggists.

Asthma and Hay Fever cured by a newly discovered treatment. Address, for pamphlet, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y.
