

“WHEN THE FROST IS ON THE PUMPKIN.”

This is not a procession of Esquimaux on the march; neither is it an Arctic expedition making a final dash for the Pole. It is merely the day boys performing their morning walk over the snow-clad hills and dales of Avenue road.