- I L'Accord mettant fin aux accords relatifs aux services télégraphiques du Commonwealth signés à Londres le 25 juillet 1963 5
- II Accord financier de l'Organisation des Télécommunications du Commonwealth 9

Agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

1. The Governments signatories to this Agreement, hereinafter referred to as the "Parties", hereby terminate the provisions of clause 6 of the Commonwealth Telegraphs Agreement 1948 and the provisions of clause 6 of the Commonwealth Telegraphs Agreement 1963 and the Agreements entered into pursuant to the said Agreements.

ARTICLE 2

2. Accounts in respect of the period prior to the entry into force of this Agreement which have not been settled under the Agreements entered into pursuant to clause 6 of the Commonwealth Telegraphs Agreement 1948 shall, as soon as possible after entry into force of this Agreement, be made up by the National Bodies of the Government Parties to this Agreement and settled between them as nearly as may be in accordance with the provisions of the said Agreements entered into pursuant to clause 6 of the Commonwealth Telegraphs Agreement 1948.

ARTICLE 3

3. The costs of any pension or gratuity payable or which may become payable to any person in respect of his employment with the former Commonwealth Telecommunications Board or with the Commonwealth Telecommunications Bureau and of any pension or gratuity payable to any dependant of any such person and any increase in such pensions or gratuities as may from time to time be agreed by the Commonwealth Telecommunications Council shall, in the same proportions as the Government Parties to this Agreement contribute to the expenses of the Commonwealth Telecommunications Council, be paid to the Commonwealth Telecommunications Bureau for disbursement by the Bureau to the persons to whom any such pension or gratuity is payable.

ARTICLE 4

4. By their acceptance of this Agreement the Government Parties hereto accept it on their own behalf and on behalf of their National Bodies and in respect of the territories for the international relations of which any such Government is responsible.
