

5. Claims for damage to property or injury to persons arising from acts or omissions of members of the United States "force" as defined in Article VIII of this Agreement will be considered and settled in accordance with Article VIII of the North Atlantic Treaty Status of Forces Agreement, signed in London on June 19, 1951.

6. In the case of other claims against the United States arising from activities at the Range, the United States may also offer to settle these in accordance with applicable provisions of United States law. If any such offers are acceptable, the United States may so settle them.

ARTICLE XII

Information

The public release of information relating to operations under this Agreement will be the responsibility of the Agency concerned with the sponsorship of each project.

ARTICLE XIII

Locations Other than CRR

In addition to the Churchill Research Range, other facilities or installations of the National Research Council of Canada may be used for the support of United States sounding rocket launches or other scientific experiments for peaceful purposes as described in Article I, as may be agreed between the Cooperating Agencies. The provisions of the Articles of this Annex shall apply to such activities where applicable.
