

- 1.14. To provide advice and assistance in the planning of reconstruction campaigns and programmes by producing publicity materials, by supplying information concerning the forms of assistance and the areas which should have the highest priority and by giving detailed information about the needs of selected institutions.
- 1.15. To attend to the needs of institutions and organizations concerned with the education of adults, such as trade unions and workers' educational movements.
- 1.16. To obtain from donor organizations reports on their activities in meeting educational, scientific and cultural needs.
- 1.17. To prepare and publish a report on the effectiveness of UNESCO's programme in the field of reconstruction.
- 1.2. Collaboration with non-governmental organizations
The Director-General is instructed to continue to provide the Secretariat for the Temporary International Council for Educational Reconstruction, in order to aid in the co-ordination of voluntary efforts.
- 1.3. Action by Member States
The General Conference recommends to Member States:
- 1.31. That all appropriate agencies and organizations within each Member State should co-operate with UNESCO in making effective its reconstruction programme.
- 1.32. That National Committees of non-governmental organizations for educational, scientific and cultural reconstruction should be formed in all Member States to assist in the task of rebuilding in war-devastated countries.
- 1.33. That their national commissions should assist in the co-ordination of voluntary efforts and in the work of TICER.
- 1.34. That they take immediate steps to arrange for duty-free entrance of contributed educational materials.
- 1.35. That they provide for adequate reporting to donors about the use of contributed materials.
- 1.36. That they call upon their educational institutions to provide suitable employment for refugee intellectuals and to furnish them with opportunities to become proficient in the language of the country.
- 1.37. That in view of war damage and the increased birthrate, they give priority to the building and equipment of schools, universities and other educational institutions.
- 1.38. That they issue stamps with a surcharge for the UNESCO Reconstruction Fund.
- 1.4. Co-operation with the United Nations
The Director General is instructed:
- 1.41. To collaborate with the appropriate organs of the United Nations and the Specialized Agencies to ensure that in the development and execution of plans
