

POLICY OPTIONS PAPERS AND REPORTS

Over 160 Policy Development Papers and Project Reports are now available. Please check our website for some, including National Forum Discussion Papers. Other papers are available on request. Here is a list of some current papers:

“Le concept de sécurité humaine et ses applications: Afrique des Grands Lacs et Bosnie (1990-97)”(No.1)

“Vie commune: aspects internationaux des fédéralismes.” (No.76)

“Les droits de la personne et internet.” (No.86)

“Rapport sur la table ronde sur les droits de la personne et le commerce international.” (No.88)

“L’Elargissement de l’OTAN et les interets trans-atlantiques canadiens.” (No.120)

“Vers une politique étrangere canadienne visant le nord. Document de consultation.” (No.125)

“Le Canada au Conseil de sécurité 1999-2000: Quelles sont les priorités?” (No.133)

“Rapport d’une consultation internationale d’ONG en vue d’une action sur les armes légères.” (No.143)

“Les médias africains face aux défis de la transition démocratique.” (No.2)

“Les ONG et la politique de coopération internationale du Canada.” (No.122)

“Strengthening Civil Society in Mexico: “From Clientalism to Citizenship”.” (No.20)

“ The Lessons of Yugoslavia.” (No.53)

“ Towards a Regional Security Regime for the Middle East.” (No.62)

“Civil Society and Summits.” (No.64)

“The State of Canada’s Foreign Policy Research Capacity.” (No.73)

“Living Together: International Aspects of Federal Systems.” (No.76)

“The International Order in the 21st Century: A Conference Report.” (No.113)

“Engendering Peace building.” (No.127)

“United Nations Sanctions: Policy Options for Canada.” (No.132)

“The Illegal Proliferation and Misuse of Light Weapons and Small Arms.” (No.142)

“Creating a Space for Children.” (No.148)

