

Adjournment Debate

5111 of Hansard dated May 3, 1978. The hon. member referred to the reply which was given by the Solicitor General (Mr. Blais) at that time.

Staff Sergeant Edward Francis Hameluk loyally served in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police for 24 years. He retired on January 19, 1975. The RCMP has never had cause to doubt this man's discretion while employed in operational methods within the security services of the RCMP. As far as I know, the force has been given no reason to suspect him of anything contrary to the law since that time.

After his retirement, he obtained employment with the department of the attorney general in the province of British Columbia in the co-ordinated law enforcement unit. In the spring of 1978, Staff Sergeant Hameluk secured employment as a security officer with a firm operated by Mr. John Herbert Meirs of British Columbia.

As a result of the question raised by the hon. member for Surrey-White Rock, inquiries were made since that time by the RCMP. I am pleased to inform the House that no evidence of any impropriety on the part of Mr. Hameluk has been raised at the federal level, nor by any other person since the time of the investigation, as far as I know.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order, please. The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, the House stands adjourned until tomorrow at two o'clock.

Motion agreed to and the House adjourned at 10.30 p.m.
