Prefers Cattle Buying.

John Moxon, a well known cattle buyer, has a cousin in Cleveland who has a record of 40 years' service in the fire department of that city. For 30 years he has been a fire captain and does not contemplate retirement. Unlike John, he is of large stature, being 6 feet 5 inches tall, and weighs 235 lbs. John says his relative can have all the tire fighting, but he prefers a good active cattle market business.

LIFE CRUSHED OUT BY GRAVEL PIT CAVE-IN

CHATHAM, Ont. Feb. 16.—Frank Morton a young Englishman employed on the farm of Robert Stenton of Harwich was killed by a cave-in at the O'Keefe gravel pit in Harwich. Hundreds of farmers have gravel hauled from this pit every winter to place on the roads. On Saturday there were about twenty farmers there with wagons loading gravel. Morton had burrowed into the pit about fifteen feet when the cave-in occurred and he was crushed to death.

WRONGLY PUNISHED

UBLY, Mich., Feb. 16.—An illness mysterious and defying every diagnosis of Michigan doctors, may mean the liberation of Dr. Robert Mac-Gregor, the London, Ont., physician serving a life sentence for the alleged murder of Scyrll Sparling.

Ray Sparling, brother of the young man, for whose death Dr MaoGregor was sentenced, is slowly wasting away. His mother, who was charged with being implicated in Scyrll's death and who only recently made the dramatic plea to be allowed to be tried again in order that Dr. Macgregor's chances for a new trial; denied by the Michigan courts, might be enhanged, has tried several times to take her only remaining child to Port Huron for treatment. Each time she has been forced to give up the trip because of his weakened condition.
