These are strenuous days in the realms of clothing and lots of materials are being manufactured, to help out the honest sheep, that should never have gone beyond the factory doors. Therefore, we say to you that in selecting your suits or overcoats for Thanksgiving, be careful, don't go altogether upon the price asked, but rather upon the reputation of the store you buy from. Here is our price range for Suits: $10.00, $12.00, $13.50, $15.00, $16.50, $18.00, $20.00, $22.00, $25.00 and up to $40.00, and the same may be said for our Overcoats. Every useful and practical style is shown in our immense collection.

day arrested Charles Hetherington, well-dressed, middle-aged man, who is want-ed by the police of Chicago on a charge of fraud. The amount involved is $5000. The only clue the local police had to work upon was a poor photograph of the prisoner, which was received here a week ago. The police state that Hetherington, for the past two weeks, has been visit-ing Toronto and London, in an effort to induce some of the citizens to co-operate with him in a scheme in connection with Red 'Cross contributions. Demanded Drastic Action. The announcement was made on good authority yesterday that the action to be taken by the Ontario License Commis-sion with respect to hotels and the sale of liquor to soldiers is now narrowed down to two propositions. One of them is that the hotels stop selling spirits at 7 o'clock at night and still continue to keep open until the regular dlosing hour, selling wine and beer only. The other is that all hotels be closed at 9 o'clock, in each case no change to be made in Sat-urday hours. It is also stated that the demands of
