

- day, 180; paints scenery for theatre, 171; succours the northern division, 326; sketch for bill of fare by, 335; paints the boats, 245.
- Murchison Sound, 50.
- Musical instruments, 7. (See Harmonium, Piano.)
- Musicians in the ships of Sir H. Gilbert and John Davis, 7, 8.
- Musk-oxen, traces of, 60, 61; hunting, 104; range of, 106; traces in Discovery Harbour, 107; beef presented by "Alert" to "Discovery," 108; hunt in Shift-Rudder Bay, 113; quantity of meat from, 186, 204; meat nearly stolen by dogs, 207; in the summer, 338.
- Mustard and cress grown in the "Alert," 203, 211, 345.
- Nares, Captain George S., R.N., resolves to take the middle pack, 44; visits Life-boat Cove and Littleton Island, 53; constant vigilance, 66; visits Hannah Isle, 101; ascends hill above Cape Morton, 102; selects winter quarters for "Discovery," 107; observes opening in the pack, 114; catches a lemming, 115; desirous of finding a more sheltered spot for winter quarters, 128, 135; his account of sledge travelling, 140; lecture on astronomy, 169; gives name to the Palæocrystic Sea, 200; excellent health and spirits of those under his command at the commencement of the New Year, 204; lecture on sledging experiences, 215; arrangement for opening communication with "Discovery," 246; unjust attack upon, regarding lime-juice, 237; absurdity of the charge against him, 238; his Union Jack taken with northern division, 258; at Cape Joseph Henry Dépôt, 321; leaves hares for northern division, 321; comes to the relief of the northern division, 325, 327; decision to return home, 337, 346; anxiety for safety of Beaumont, 340; accepts offer of coal at Egedesminde, 363; lands at Valenlia, 367; satisfaction of the Admiralty with his conduct of the Expedition, 368.
- Narwhal hunting, 50.
- Naturalist, zeal in a gale of wind, 19; visit to Oviak, 31; finds Eskimo remains at Cape Beechey, 60; ascends hill in Bessels Bay, 101; at distant Cape, 110. (See Feilden, Captain.)
- "Nellie," Commander Markham's black retriever, coveted by Eskimos at Proven, 39; dislike of Eskimo dogs, 78; surprise at the tabogganing, 188; stood the cold well, 188, 189; adventure with, in the unifilar house, 209, 210; eats the lemmings, 212; followed by a wolf, 228.
- Nelson, Lord, an old Arctic officer, 179.
- New Year's day, 202, 203, 204.
- Nip, preparations for, 65, 71, 83; off Cape McClintock, 94; south of Cape Beechey, 348. (See Ice.)
- Norman-Lockyer Island, Eskimo remains on, 69, 74; visited, 73.
- North extreme, camp, 307, 308; farthest point ever reached, 309, 311.
- "North Water," of Baffin Bay, 47; of Smith Sound, 72, 97.
- Northumberland Island, 50.
- Norton Shaw Cape, passed by the ships, 94.
- Observations, scientific, in winter quarters, 180; difficulties, 180; while sledging, 303; at farthest northern point, 307, 310. (See Magnetic, Meteorological, Astronomical.)
- Observatories, wooden, for transit instrument, 152; magnetic, 154, dismantling of, 227.
- Officers, selection, 4; tests of physical capacity, 15; amusements, 167; lectures by, 169; theatricals, 169, 173; scientific observations, 180; birthdays celebrated, 184;