

the extension of the Redeemer's kingdom—and the present and eternal salvation of immortal souls. If these objects are promoted, the author will be satisfied ; and will render, as is justly due, the glory to God alone : “ Unto him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.”

London, Canada West,

18th March, 1850.