Note and Comment

The loyalty of the owners and management of the Toronto Baseball Club to the home town cannot be over-estimated. A winning team was promised, and the results the past four weeks would indicate that the championship pennant will fly from the stadium flag pole thruout the Hustlers Hammer Drucke for summer of 1923. The spring training games, according to those on the spot, pointed to a team of superlative calibre, and so it was, as far as the fielders were concerned, and when President McCaffery, after the season was well under way, secured by trade and purchase Maxwell, Drucke, Gaspar, Graham and Bemis,

The difficulty seems to be that Vancouver came back a week ago Saturday after losing four straight and won on the enemy's grounds. Vancouver papers tell of incidents after that game. When the final gong sounded there was a rush of infuriated spectators to that part of the field, where Referee Reynolds was holding forth, and the official surely looked up against it.

Reynolds was struck several times, while the players had some battles on their hands before the referee was able to climb over the fence in front of the new grand stand. Someone hurled a plece of plank, and it struck the referee a glancing blow on the head, but if did no damage. The rowdy was promptly arrested by a plain clothes officer. The police drew revolvers. After the game Commissioner Senkler had a few remarks to make on the rowdyism. "It was one of the most disgraceful scenes ever connected with the national game. I considered Mr. Reynolds refereed in a fair and impartial manner, and he did the only thing possible when the rough play started in the final quarter."

well, Drucke, Gaspar, Graham and Bemis, the team started going like the ante-season predictions, and here's hoping that they can keep up the stride until they land the rag!

ROCHESTER, July 20.—Tom Hughes gave a masterly exhibition of twirling sand Rochester easily annexed the first game of to-day's double-header. The thing sump to the extent of pounding at the top, are almost identical with the Irish-Canadians, down at the bottom, in goals scored for and against, while Tecumsehs are just as good as Irish-Canadians, down at less, and lost, the they have tallied seven goals less, and lost twenty more.

Lacrosse matters have reached a climax in British Columbia. The riots of July 15, when Vancouver turned the tables at New Westminster by 5 to 2, were followed on Saturday by the Salmon Bellies refusing to like up at Vancouver. Con. Jones of the latter club and Harry Senkler of the B. C. Lacrosse Commission, are both disgusted with the action of New Westmin-ster.

when the latter claimed they were robbed by Joe Reynolds, a Vancauver referee, and the fans mobbed him. The lacrosse commission this week ordered Tom differed and Geo. Rennie suspended for one game, but arranged that the penalty be paid by one man to-day and by the other next Saturday, this being done so as not to unduly weaken the team. Westminster then said they wished to have both men laid off the same game, so as to sacrifice only one match. Con Jones thinks that under the rules Westminster will forfeit its franchise and there will be no more games this season. Jones will then bring out eastern teams to battle with the cup-holders.
